ZEPPELINS RAIDING ENGLISH TOWNS ATTACK EIGHT CITIES NEAR LONDON

LOCOCO TELLS WHY HE SHOT

SLAYER AND WIFE ON STAND

Heartrending Story of Denial Is Told to Jurors

Woman Weeps, Describing Woes of Starving
Family

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—With his expressive countenance carrying a mute message of appeal to each one of the twelve men in the jury box, Joseph Lococo walked to the witness stand before Superior Judge Griffin this morning and told how he had slain George Gray, wealthy contractor, for withholding his wages. Speaking in English, brokenly but clearly, he traced his heartrending struggle from the time he was forced to leave his work in the East until the day he became a murderer because his wife and children faced starvation.

A few moments before Mrs. Lococo, the wife, had occupied the same seat and had poured into the attentive ears of jury, judge and a throng of court room a story of suffering and hardship and of babies crying for bread.

There was many a tear shed and many a handkerchief taken from a hidden pocket by the women present when these two related the story. Both were sad, sad tales and counsel made the most of them.

WOMAN'S PITIFUL TALE.

Mrs. Lococo was called to the stand at 9:45 a. m. She first described the incidents of her life before leaving Italy and the birth of her first child during the absence of her husband. Then she recounted his coming to America, obtaining employment with an automobile company and their promise to take him back if he should suffer his health in the West. He had contracted a bad cold and had had several hemorrhages, which had led the little family to come to California.

"Just before this all happened," said Mrs. Lococo, "my husband seemed to be dazed. He was always an excitable man. He was speaking and acting strangely before the shooting. He had been sick and he couldn't work and he was worried about me and the babies. That morning when he went away and he never came back, there was nothing to eat. There was no milk for the babies. The only thing in the house was water. We filled up the milk bottles with water and it looked a little bit like milk and the babies they drank it. That was all. My husband was owed money but he couldn't get it. He immediately began his own story. He corroborated his wife regarding his first experiences in this country and

MILLIONAIRE MUST WAIT FOR COIN

S. N. Griffith, millionaire of Fresno, who sought to set aside a trust clause in the will of the late Frank J. Moffitt in order that he might collect a debt of $3600 owed by Jefferson Moffitt, his son, will have to wait until the expiration of the trust for his money, along with other creditors, according to a decision made by Superior Judge Waste today. The trust will hold for several years longer, according to the will of the Oakland man's father, who bequeathed him $10,000.

Millionaire Griffith said Jefferson Moffitt and Lloyd Griffith, his son, a year ago on a promissory note which he had taken on as security from a local bank. He obtained judgment

SON ATTACKS DEATHBED MARRIAGE

ASKS COURT FOR INHERITANCE

That the death-bed marriage of his mother, Mrs. Mary D. Murphy, to Dr. Francis E. Reynolds last Sunday noon was brought about by the physician for the sole purpose of clinching title to valuable property which she had shortly before deeded to him, is the contention of Leander J. Murphy, the son and heir, who had commenced a contest in the Superior Court to get possession of the entire estate. Claiming that neither he nor any other of his mother's relatives were present at the ceremony, the son alleges that Dr. Reynolds exercised undue influence over his mother at a time when she was physically incapacitated and incompetent to carry out the negotiations of the property transfers and her subsequent marriage.

Mrs. Murphy died early Monday morning and a few hours later her widower caused to be recorded deeds to property at 2335 Market street and the assignment of a mortgage given as security for a promissory note of $1250 given by Hugh M. Coke and wife. The deeds and the assignment were dated March 25, at a time when Mrs. Murphy was failing rapidly and after she had undergone a serious operation.

Attorneys Rose & Silverstein, representing the son, late yesterday sought to obtain special letters of administration in the estate of Mrs. Reynolds from Superior Judge Wells. The petition being denied, a suit was immediately filed in which Leander J. Murphy's complaint against Dr. Reynolds, the action was taken to prevent Dr. Reynolds from disposing of any of the property which he obtained from Mrs. Murphy before her marriage. The complaint alleges that Dr. Reynolds has made efforts to assign the deeds and to dispose of other personal property of the estate which he has in his possession. The property is alleged to have been obtained through "fraud and misrepresentation and by artifice," on the part of the defendant in the action. Title by the transfer is to be attacked in what will probably be a hard fought legal battle.

"I was not at home when my mother and Dr. Reynolds were married last Sunday," declared Leander Murphy today. "He knew that I would not be there and when a niece of my mother appeared she was sent away from the house on an errand. There were none of her relatives present."

"The ceremony was brought about for the purpose of defrauding me of my rights of inheritance and I shall make every effort to recover the property that should have been mine," he further stated.

Mrs. Murphy at the time of her death was 51 years of age. She was for more than 25 years engaged as a teacher of records in Alameda county. For many years she controlled a large business which she only gave up six months ago when stricken with the malady which finally caused her death. She was one of the best known business women in Oakland and left an estate which will probably appraise at between $10,000 and $15,000.

The deeds made out to Dr. Reynolds cover a 25-foot frontage adjoining the home in Market street. The home was deeded to the son in addition to the mortgage, assigned to Dr. Reynolds. It is said that he received other personal property.

Dr. Reynolds was a life-long friend of Mrs. Murphy. He boarded in her home in Market street and practiced his profession there.

BROKER'S WIFE ARRESTED AS 'PAL' OF ACCUSED EASTERN BANK TELLER

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—Arrested here secretly nearly a week ago, Mrs. Lillian Munson, indicted in New Jersey in connection with the alleged defalcation of Ralph Lovell, who is accused of the embezzlement of $100,000 has been under the guard of a matron at the Stewart hotel. Not until this morning, when United States Commissioner Krall was notified that he would be asked to make an order of removal for her, was news of the important capture made public. Mrs. Munson is the wife of a New York broker. She was taken into custody by an agent of the federal department of justice, who chanced to learn of her whereabouts. The greatest possible secrecy was maintained and she was released on her own recognizance and allowed to remain at her hotel in the technical custody of the matron.

The crime for which Mrs. Munson will be taken to Edgewater, N. J., is alleged to have been committed last year, when she is accused of having aided and abetted Lovell, a teller in the First National Bank there, of robbing his employers. She was indicted on March 23, 1915, nearly ten months after Lovell escaped. At the time of the alleged crime Mrs. Munson was Miss Lillian Camp. It is said that it was through her information that Lovell was subsequently captured in London, where he had fled with the bank's coin.

Mrs. Camp was married to Munson and no action was taken by the government, until, according to information obtained here, it was learned that $4000 had been placed in escrow for her in New York by Lovell. It was then that her alleged connection with the defaulter was established in the minds of the officers. Indictments followed.

When Mrs. Munson appeared before the commissioner, she waived her rights and declared she was ready to accompany the United States marshal sent tomorrow afternoon. She declined to talk for publication.

"It is terrible to be in this trouble," she said. "I wish the news of it could be suppressed. I have received word from my husband and he has promised to have my bail ready when I reach New Jersey. I haven't anything more to say."

Ex-Policeman Arrested on Charge of Robbery

ALAMEDA, April 16.—James P. Hickey, a former policeman, who about a year ago resigned from the department at the request of the chief of police, was arrested today on a warrant charging him with robbery and was locked up in default of $5000 cash or $10,000 property bail.

Carl Raddatz, who lives in an ark on San Leandro bay, was accused by a stranger last Sunday night, who soon became so abusive that a fight was started, and Raddatz says his assailant robbed him of $24. On complaining to the police Raddatz was sent with a patrolman to look for the robber. After a hunt of several hours Raddatz pointed out Hickey and swore to a warrant.

Since he left the police force Hickey has been a laborer and bartender.

Rehearing Asked in California Oil Cases

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Application was made today for re-hearing of the Midwest Oil case, in which the supreme court, on the theory of "long-continued acquiescence by Congress in the practice," upheld the validity of President Taft's order withdrawing public oil lands in California and Wyoming from entry without express authorization by Congress. The application was filed by an array of attorneys representing oil companies.

75,000 MEN STRIKE IN CHICAGO

Building Trades Paralyzed by Walkout of Union Carpenters

Violence Begins in First Day of Tie-up, Is Report

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 15.—Sixteen thousand union carpenters, striking for an increase of 5 cents an hour, were under the ban of a lockout order by their former employers today. Painters, lathers, plasterers and sheet metal workers found themselves in similar circumstances and enough allied trades were affected to bring the total of idle men beyond 75,000. The carpenters were on strike from 4:30 p. m. yesterday until midnight. Then the lockout order went into effect and today men who wished to bolt the strike order and continue at work were told to carry their grievances to the union officials.

When work ceased on approximately 4000 of the 4500 unfinished structures in the city the contractors laid off all hands except a few men retained to clean up odd jobs. Watchmen were employed to keep close vigil over unfinished structures. This precaution was deemed particularly necessary because of the decision of most of the employers to bring non-union workmen into Chicago from other cities. Contracting painters and decorators have decided to substitute strangers for 9000 union brush wielders who were locked out because of their number struck in protest against the anti-strike agreement which all members of the building construction employers' association were pledged to exact from all building crafts.

Violence already has been reported by men interested in the painting and decorating trade. A big automobile carrying men armed with brass knuckles and blackjacks appeared on the North Side and many non-union men were beaten, according to reports.

POLICE SEEK MISSING MRS. CHRISTMAN

With an affidavit of insanity sworn out against her, Mrs. Minnie L. Christman, known as "the woman with the poisoned pen," who wrote defamatory letters to prominent society women in Oakland, has disappeared and detectives from the police department are endeavoring to trace her movements from the time she was discharged by Superior Judge Doelling in San Francisco last week.

Three years ago Mrs. Christman was arrested by the federal authorities for sending obscene literature through the mails. The case against her was pending for at that time, while she was under observation as to her mental condition. Finally she was discharged after a trial and the court recommended that she be placed in some institution for treatment.

An affidavit of insanity was sworn against her by C. E. Knox, a postal inspector, and the warrant was placed in the hands of the police by Deputy District Attorney Walter J. Burpee last Monday.

When the officers began to search for Mrs. Christman they found that she had left the city. She has been traced to Stockton and it is believed that she will be taken into custody within a short time. The defendant is the wife of George Christman and formerly lived in Thirty-third street.

BANDITS RAID BANK BUILDING

Two bandits late this afternoon held up A. Davis, an employee of the Kentucky Loan and Trust Company, on the sixth floor of the Security Bank building. Eleven street and Broadway. After robbing him at the point of a revolver, they left him bound and gagged on the floor.

The man was later released when Dr. F. E. James, a physician, occupying offices next door, entered the place, and, finding him helpless, released him.

FISTS BEAT TATTOO IN CAMPAIGN

BERKELEY, April 15.—John C. Altman, a University graduate, who furnished J. Stitt Wilson, mayorally candidate, with an affidavit in which he declares that he was told by Mansell P. Griffiths, former president of the university student body and publicity agent for Samuel C. Irving, Wilson's opponent, that he, Griffiths, had $5000 of Key Route money to bet on his man, announced today that he had been assaulted late last night by Griffiths.

The alleged assault occurred after one of the stormiest political meetings in the history of Berkeley, in which Wilson came to the support of his charges that bankers and corporate interests were behind his opponent. The meeting almost ended in a free-for-all fight when Griffiths was hurled bodily from the platform in the high school auditorium by Norman W. Pendleton, defeated candidate for the council in the primary election.

Pendleton threw Griffiths from the platform when the latter attempted to climb upon the stage to address the audience, following the reading of Altman's affidavit. Wilson did not mention the name of Altman at the time, saying that he had promised not to divulge the name of the affidavit's signer. It was 3000 of their number struck in protest against the anti-strike agreement which all members of the building construction employers' association were pledged to exact from all building crafts.

THIRD AIR ATTACK MADE IN THIRTY-SIX HOURS ON BRITAIN OCCURS IN DAY

By Associated Press.

LONDON, April 16, 2:20 p. m.—Hostile aeroplanes are reported over the city of Canterbury, which is 55 miles to the east of London.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, April 16, 2:05 p. m.—A German airship dropped bombs this afternoon on Sittingbourne and Faversham.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, April 16, 2 p. m.—It is reported that a German aeroplane at mid-day today dropped bombs near Herne Bay in Kent, six miles from Canterbury.

Herne Bay is a town and watering place on an estuary of the Thames with a population of about 7000. It is fifty miles in an air line from London.

LONDON, April 16, 11:10 a. m.—Pronounced activity at the German airship bases at Emden and Cuxhaven today is reported in telegrams received from Holland. An urgent call was issued in London this afternoon for special police to go on duty at 5 p. m.

According to reports from Holland, three Zeppelins were seen today flying westward over the Dutch islands in the North sea.

Count Zeppelin is said to be directing the operations at Cuxhaven.

NEW CRIME IN MYSTERY HOME

"Haunted House" Afire Police Seek Suspect

The "haunted house" on Haskell street, exactly on the boundary line between Oakland and Berkeley, in which John R. Rider murdered his wife some years ago, and in which Detective A. S. J. Woods of the Berkeley police department recently found what he believed was an infernal machine, was the scene of another mysterious crime last night. An attempt was made to burn down the place, and the police are looking for a short, stoop-shouldered man, believed to have been the incendiary.

Whether the attempt was motivated by desire to hide traces of some other crime, or whether superstitious people in the neighborhood may have attempted to burn down the house to get rid of the "ghosts" that are declared to have haunted the place since the murder, is a mystery to the police.

Most of the crimes have been committed in the Berkeley half of the house, but have been investigated by the Oakland authorities, as they have first been reported to Oakland. It was the same with the fire last night. It occurred in the northern end of the building, just across the line in Berkeley. But the blaze

Large Realty Deal Closed in Oakland

Announcement of one of the most important realty deals of the month was made today when details were made public of the sale of the El Nido apartments at Lake San Madrazo streets, in Elmer Whitehead, an Oakland stock and bond broker. The sale is declared to involve in the neighborhood of $100,000, the deal transferring the property from William R. Danglefield to the local business man and capitalist. The El Nido apartments are among the new show buildings of the lakeside district and were completed only a short time ago. The consideration, besides a cash sum, involves the transfer of 120 acres near Russell City, in the county in which Whitehead has been interested.

Walter D. O'Brien represented the parties to the sale in the negotiations that led up to the deal. Whitehead will be declared to hold the property as an investment.

NOT MUCH DAMAGE IN KENT

LONDON, April 16, 3 p. m.—The damage done by the German airships in Kent has been negligible so far as is known up to the present time. Two bombs were dropped on Faversham, but no damage resulted.

The aeroplane which dropped shells on Faversham was shot at but the aim apparently was poor. The airman dropped another bomb, but the only result was the digging of a hole in an orchard. Still another bomb was dropped into a chalk quarry. The German machine then started for the sea by way of Deal, from which direction it had appeared over Kent.

Sittingbourne is in the county of Kent. It has a population of 9000. Faversham also is in Kent, and is ten miles west northwest of Canterbury. It has a population of 12,000.

TWO ZEPPELINS LEAD RAID

LONDON, April 16, 10:35 a. m.—At least two Zeppelins raided the counties of Suffolk and Essex early this morning and dropped bombs within thirty-six miles of London, but so far as material damage was concerned, the attack of the "Germans" was less successful than on previous occasions. A large number of bombs was dropped on towns and villages, but no loss of life resulted. The number of airships which took part in the raid is uncertain, but it is believed that more than one, as attacks were made within a few minutes of each other at points seventy miles apart. The first Zeppelin was seen at 1 o'clock, flying over Harwich in the direction of Ipswich.

At Lowestoft, where three bombs were dropped, a Zeppelin was seen on fire. Three houses were killed and many windows were broken. At Southwold, where several bombs were dropped, railway tracks were fired at. Maiden a house was struck and a Zeppelin was seen at 11:15. At 11:30 a Zeppelin was seen at 11:30. A telegram received from F. von Mullen, (Continued on Page 3, Col. 1) of the illness which overtook him. Then he explained how he had finally found work with Gray Brothers, and had been unable to collect his $17. He said:

"I went there and they told me that I would have to come on the pay day. I was sick and I couldn't go that pay day and so they said, 'You will have to wait until the next pay day.' That time I went but that day they were not paying the checks and they told me to come back. I didn't know what to do. I went to the Italian consul and he tried to get the money for me, but it was no use. Then that morning I went up to see Gray. The foreman told me he was not there. Then pretty soon I found him. He wouldn't listen to me. He told me he wouldn't give me any money. I told him my wife and babies were starving. He walked away. He went down the hill to the street. I followed him again. I begged him again. I had the gun and I shot. I don't remember much about that. Then the policeman came and they arrested me."

Lococo's case will go to the jury either tonight or tomorrow morning. It is expected that the evidence will be concluded shortly after noon.

VICTIM FLEES WHEN HIGHWAYMEN DEBATE

"Get him," said one unnamed highwayman. "Ah, let him go," suggested the other. Whereupon V. E. Kneel of 215 Latham street, who had just been stopped by white men at Latham and Harrison road, near his home, left the bandits to their own devices.

"When they got to arguing over me I beat it," he told the police over the telephone.

SEEK INCENDIARY; NEW CRIME FOUND

"Mystery House" Sees New Chapter in Story of Mishaps.

was put out by the Oakland fire department, the "firebug" escaped into Oakland, and the Oakland police are investigating.

The only crime which was really handled in Berkeley was the finding of the incendiary device by Detective Woods. But after Woods had raced out into the street with the "machine," he found that it was a clock the gas company had placed on a meter to see whether somebody was stealing gas.

The fire was discovered last night by William Lawrence, 1301 Blackstone street, who saw the mysterious stoop-shouldered stranger leave the yard of the vacant house, at 1328 Haskell street. The man ran away when Lawrence attempted to speak to him.

Lawrence passed the house and saw flames rising inside. He commanded a jitney bus into service on San Pablo avenue and rang in an alarm from the nearest fire box.

The fire was put out by the Oakland department after considerable damage had been done. The origin of the blaze could not be ascertained. It had been started in the interior of the dwelling.

Charles Madelon, 610 San Pablo avenue, who was one of the first to break into the building, could not find the cause of the fire. The police are investigating.

The house is owned by Fred D'Acrequith, 1535 Occidental street. The owner was unable to explain the mystery.

Rider killed his wife in this house in January, 1912. He was later captured and found guilty of murder.

SOCIALISTS DROP HOLIDAY.

BERLIN, via London, April 15.—According to the "Vorwaerts" the Socialist party management has advised subordinate organizations to omit the May day celebration this year owing to the "peculiar circumstances." It is understood that "peculiar circumstances" refers to the need of keeping the arms factories in operation.

VILLA IS DEFEATED AT CELAYA

Obregon Captures Thousands; Pursues Routed Foe

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Duval West, special representative of the state department, today telegraphed Secretary Bryan that conditions in Mexico City were again becoming serious, owing to the lack of foodstuffs and the interruption of communications. The department immediately notified Consul Silliman at Vera Cruz to urge the Carranza authorities to co-operate in clearing the railroad to the Mexican capital for the shipments of supplies.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 15.—Consul Silliman at Vera Cruz cabled the State Department today a summary of the Carranza reports of a victory by General Obregon over the Villa forces near Celaya. Rout of the Villa army, with the capture of thirty pieces of artillery and many prisoners was claimed.

Department officials were awaiting detailed reports from both sides before accepting as definite the result claimed by either.

Meager advice to the Carranza forces from Vera Cruz said that General Obregon in reporting a decisive victory over the Villa forces, claimed to have captured 2500 prisoners and fourteen cannons. He added that he was in pursuit of the enemy.

Unofficial advice from Vera Cruz said that General Obregon reported that 6000 Villa troops had been killed and that 6000 prisoners and forty field pieces had been taken.

ANARCHY AT CAPITAL. Affidavits have been received by diplomatic representatives from the International committee of Mexico City, which in many cases have been confirmed by previous advice received, alleging the existence of conditions of anarchy in Mexico City and reciting specific instances of abuse of foreigners there. These affidavits have been transmitted by the diplomats to the home governments. Copies of the allegations corroborated by their own representatives in Mexico, have been submitted by the diplomatic representatives to the State Department for its information.

Word reached Secretary Bryan from Americans in Mexico City, he said recently, that the affidavits were on their way to Washington and that they exaggerated actual conditions in many instances.

"ALL HUMBLED"—ROMERO.

By Associated Press. SEATTLE, April 15.—"That's all humbled," said Colonel M. Perez Romero, recently appointed Carranza minister to Japan, and brother of Mrs. Francisco Madero, widow of the late president of Mexico, when shown a copy of General Huerta's statement disclaiming responsibility for the death of Mr. Madero.

"Laying aside the fact that he got into power by treason and disregarding the question of who actually shot President Madero, the fact remains," said Colonel Romero, "that General Huerta was in power and could command the armed forces of the country. President Madero was a prisoner and while in his power was assassinated. How Huerta can attempt to evade responsibility for his death is inconceivable."

"I was an eye-witness to all the happenings of those tragic days except for seven hours from 12 o'clock at night until 9 o'clock in the morning. When Mr. Madero was killed. At 8 o'clock I traced the automobile to the penitentiary and there saw pools of blood behind the prison and was told by persons coming away that there the president had been shot by the soldiers."

"The facts have all been gone over, time and again. It is useless for General Huerta to disclaim responsibility. He swore to support the Madero government. He committed treason to overthrow that government. These are facts. His statement is scarcely worth discussion."

Colonel Romero left Vera Cruz a month ago, visiting the Carranza legations in Cuba and Canada before coming to Seattle, where he arrived today. He will sail on the Japanese liner Shidzuka Maru for Japan to take up his diplomatic duties. He expects to remain there indefinitely.

Colonel Romero said the constitutionalists were not worrying about General Huerta's presence in the United States.

"We do not look for any further trouble from him," he said. "He is wise enough to keep out of Mexico."

TO INVESTIGATE OPERATIONS.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Investigation of reports that Mexican neutrality is being violated by the operations of Japanese naval forces in the Gulf of Mexico, will be undertaken today by the Villa agency here. Enrique C. Llorente, head of the agency, telegraphed General Adolfo de Huerta, military governor of Lower California, asking for a full report on the situation. The United States government also has taken note of these reports and Secretary Daniels announced today that Admiral Howard had been directed to furnish the navy department any information available.

SALUTE IS FIRED.

ON BOARD U. S. S. COLORADO, off Mazatlan, Mexico, April 15, wireless.—The Mexican gunboat General Guerrero, under command of Carranza forces, who failed to salute the flag of Admiral Thomas B. Howard, commanding the Pacific fleet, when the General Guerrero arrived yesterday, fired today the seventeen guns required by naval custom. The cruiser Colorado, Admiral Howard's flagship, returned the salute, gun by gun. A French mining company operating at Santa Rosalia, ninety miles southeast of Chihuahua, is reported to be without supplies because of the confiscation of Carranza forces of its lines of communication.

TROOPS ARE WITHDRAWN.

ON BOARD U. S. S. COLORADO, off Mazatlan, by wireless via San Diego, April 15.—Villa troops which have been occupying the state of Tepic, have withdrawn from all parts of the state. The troops are proceeding in the direction of Guadalupe, capital of the state of Jalisco, which lies 100 miles to the southeast.

General Buena, in command of the Tepic forces, is said to have run short of military supplies.

"LIARS," HUERTA SAYS.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Vehemently asserting that he had nothing to do with the death of Francisco Madero, General Victoriano Huerta, former provisional president of Mexico, issued a long signed statement last night setting forth what he termed his side of the Mexican question. General Huerta declared that he knew who was responsible for Madero's death, but that he was keeping it as a "professional secret."

"Anarchy is too soft a word to call it," he said.

Discussing the death of Madero, he said:

"That is a professional secret. Lawyers have secrets, doctors have secrets. I am a soldier—why should not a soldier have secrets? It is not through friendship for any one that I am withholding the information, it is a professional duty. The time will soon come when my name will be vindicated, and as General Lee said of General Jackson, the world will say of me that I stood like a stone wall, submitting to the ignominy and the insults that have been heaped upon me."

"It has been said that you betrayed the confidence of President Madero; is it so?" he was asked.

General Huerta straightened up, his eyes flashed and bringing his clenched fist against his breast, he replied:

"No. I swear it. I was in no way responsible for his death. It has been one of the big tortures of my life. I am sorry I have to keep the secret. Although I am of a different race than you gentlemen, I am a man."

Berkeley Attorney Sues Federal Judge

Charging the jurist with slander, as a result of his expressed determination to continue a case in order to permit a personal suit, Henry Conlin, Berkeley attorney, has launched a suit today in the name of law in his suit against Circuit Judge C. U. Gantenbein of Portland, Ore., in which he complains that the judge's statements from the bench were derogatory to him and beyond the province of a maker of privileged statements.

The trouble, according to the Berkeley attorney, arose over a suit being heard before the circuit judge, in which, after hearing the evidence, the judge laid over the case indefinitely.

"I am going to lay this case over," the judge is alleged to have declared, "and give this plaintiff an opportunity to sue this witness personally."

Conlin, who is a practicing attorney of San Francisco and has been in the employ of the Southern Pacific, is now practicing in Portland.

TO PAY LAST TRIBUTE TO FRUITVALE ARTIST

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 o'clock for the late Joseph Engstrand, well-known artist, who passed away Wednesday at his home, 37 Thirtieth avenue, after a brief illness. The deceased was 47 years of age and came to this state some time ago. He was born in Chicago. He is survived by a widow, heart trouble was declared by his physicians to be the cause of death.

The funeral will be held at the A. A. Barber chapel in Fruitvale.

HOG CHOLERA PROTEST BEFORE HYNES

Conference with District Attorney Hynes was held today by a delegation from the Merchants' Exchange regarding the alleged slaughtering of cholera-infected hogs from the University of California experimental station for local consumption. The matter, which came before the authorities some time ago, has been revived by the members of the exchange, who contend that the meat thus slaughtered should not be sold for consumption. An investigation was demanded.

Those who visited the district attorney were Wilben Walker, secretary of the exchange; A. Jonas, Robert Robertson, E. F. Muller and E. A. Young, a local packer.

The matter has been taken under advisement and an effort will be made to bring about a remedy for the situation.

The matter of meat inspection was also discussed, it being contended by the delegation that the city should pay for the inspection instead of the merchants who purchase the goods.

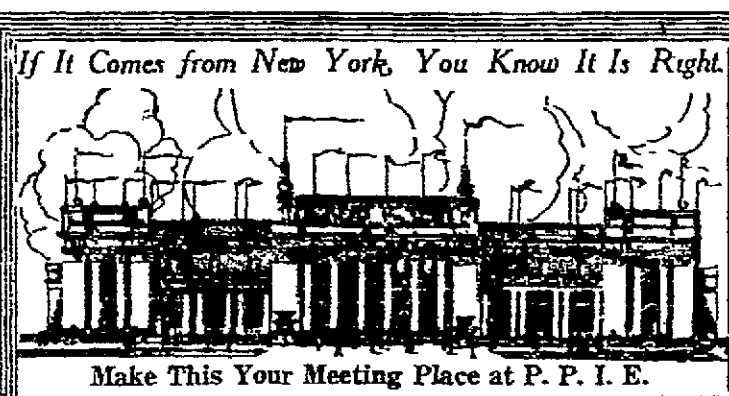

The university authorities have declared that there is no danger of disease being transmitted through the consumption of the hogs experimented upon in the university laboratories, as the infection is confined to the intestines of the animals and does not affect the meat.

AMERICANS PROVIDE RELIEF FOR POLAND

BERLIN, via London, April 15.—The negotiations between Ernest Bicknell and other members of the Rockefeller Foundation for war relief with the German government regarding relief work in Russian-Poland are understood to be nearing conclusion. All the financial arrangements have virtually been completed.

The German committee announced that the funds for the relief work will be ample. It has collected in Germany about $175,000. Another committee of German Poles at Posen has collected $150,000. All this money will be added to the American contribution of $150,000, making a total of nearly $500,000. It is believed that the German government later will give financial assistance to the movement if this should prove necessary. A high German official holds membership in the German committee. The Rockefeller Foundation will bear the expense of the administration of the relief.

A point still under negotiation is where to obtain the necessary supply of grain. The German government desires to buy the grain outside of Germany, if possible, in order to conserve the home supply. The German committee says the greatest need in Poland will occur in June and July.

ZEPPELINS RAID ENGLISH TOWNS

Bombs Fall on Eight Cities
Surrounding Capital of Kingdom.

In Holland, says the Norwegian steamer Dag came into that port this morning and reports having sighted a Zeppelin airship at 5 o'clock at a point fifteen miles off the Dutch coast. The airship was headed in the direction of Germany and is believed to be one of the invaders on her way home.

Although fears have been expressed for the safety of Canterbury Cathedral, it has now been learned that the German raiders dropped no bombs while over the city.

LONDON NOW SEES PERILS

Associated Press.
LONDON, April 15, 12:30 p. m.—The German airships today dropping bombs in Kent, within thirty miles of London, first made their appearance over Herne Bay to the east of Canterbury and about fifty miles from London. Within a few minutes they were reported over Canterbury, closer to the capital, and very shortly afterwards they appeared over Faversham and then over Sittingbourne, not more than thirty miles away, dropping bombs on each town.

This was the third German aerial attack on the eastern counties of London in the last thirty-six hours. The two previous attacks were made at night by Zeppelin airships. This raid was carried out by aeroplanes.

Aerial onslaughts, however, have not been limited to the Germans. French official reports claim a successful bombardment from the sky of the Imperial German headquarters in retaliation for a Zeppelin assault on Nancy.

A German wireless report credits to a Swiss newspaper the statement that French airmen have dropped bombs on several German towns unprotected by anti-aircraft guns.

LONDON NOT SECURE.
London no longer considers itself immune from air raiders of the Zeppelin type. It is realized also that even aeroplanes could bombard the city. Zeppelins, in their recent night raids, have traveled further from their Curhaven base than the distance from Cuxhaven to London, and airships 30 miles from the capital and choosing their own course, have brought a new conception of the effective range of this type of machine.

Nevertheless, the public is skeptical of the powers for harm of Zeppelins, the trifling damage done during the night raids of Wednesday and Thursday being cited in justification of this feeling. It would appear that the latest air raiders have used bombs of an incendiary rather than an explosive character.

FRENCH LAND VICTORY.
In the land operations the French claim a "brilliant success" north of Arras, which completes the gain made near there last month. The German position, according to the report given out officially in Paris was taken at the point of the bayonet.

On the heights of the Meuse the Germans evidently are beginning a movement to retake Les Eparges. Berlin claims to have repulsed all the French attacks along the western front, thus putting an end to the French offensive which was planned to make St. Michel untenable.

On the eastern front neither side seems to be making any headway. The lack of definite news from this arena of the war is filled by a crop of rumors which agree only on one point, namely, that great events are impending in the east.

FRENCH AEROS DROP BOMBS

Associated Press.
BASEL, April 15, via Berlin and wireless to London, 10:35 a. m.—French aeroplanes dropped bombs near Rotterdam and on Villingen and Donareschingen, towns in Baden, April 13, according to the National Zeitung. These places are said to be without anti-aircraft guns.

The French official statement issued last night stated that aviators had bombarded the station of Freiburg-im-Breisgau, about thirty miles west of the places mentioned by the National Zeitung.

SUBMARINE SINKS LOST DUTCH SHIP

Associated Press.
THE HAGUE, via London, April 15.—A submarine sank the Dutch steamer Katwijk, which went down yesterday near the North Hinder lightship, according to a report of the examination of the vessel's captain and crew published by the Department of Marine. The report says: "The captain cast anchor in twenty fathoms of water seven miles west of the North Hinder lightship. The anchor immediately was lifted, as well as two electric lamps illuminating the flags fore and aft, fifteen and ten feet in length respectively. Between the flags in big letters were the words, 'Katwijk, Rotterdam.'"

"The second mate and two sailors were busy with the lamps. Besides the lookout standing on the bridge, nobody else was on deck. Suddenly a heavy shock was felt and the mate observed a column of water rising from the port side. The lamps were thrown out and fire started immediately. "The captain and crew hastened

OFFICIAL WAR STATEMENTS

Associated Press.
BERLIN, April 15, by wireless to Sayville, N. Y.—The statement from the German war office today is as follows: "Near Ostend and Newport some enemy destroyers took part yesterday in artillery fire but were quickly silenced. "On the southern border of Sicily we occupied two houses. South of Loreto heavy fighting began again last night. "Between the Meuse and the Moselle only artillery duels took place. "The use of bombs developing asphyxiating gases and of explosive incendiary cartridges by the French is daily becoming more frequent. Aviators were unusually active yesterday, as the weather was favorable. Hostile aviators threw bombs on places behind the German front. Freiburg also was visited. At this place several civilians, including children were killed or wounded. "On the eastern front the situation is unchanged. In skirmishes near Kalwary (Russian Poland) in the last few days 1000 Russians were taken prisoner, and several machine guns were captured."

Associated Press.
PARIS, April 15, via London, 1:55 p. m.—The French official communication given out by the war office this afternoon adds nothing to the information communicated last night except the following: "Our artillery brought down during the afternoon of April 15, a German airship which fell in front of the English line, but behind the German trenches north of Ypres."

Rumanian King Feared the Czar, Editor Writes

Associated Press.
BERLIN, via London, April 15.—The late King Charles of Rumania, who died October 10, 1914, desired the victory of Germany and Austria, according to an interview granted by him on the eve of his death to Virgil Arion, chief editor of the newspaper Moldavia, published in Budapest. The Cologne Gazette has now republished this interview. In it King Charles said to the editor: "There is no question that the great power which controls the banks of the Danube should also control this country. It would mean danger for us if the Russians, firmly planted at the mouth of the Danube, extended their sovereignty to the Black Sea. This explains this great interest we have in the European conflict and it is natural that we desire the victory of the central powers."

King Charles had just granted an interview, according to the Cologne Gazette, to Chase and Noel Buxton, Englishmen, who were traveling the Balkans to determine the attitude of certain of the Balkan states toward the European war.

The king said the Buxtons told him "a great war is being waged, which has been undertaken by the important nations, but which is being conducted for the benefit of the small nations."

"Just the same," King Charles replied, "I know Russia wants Constantinople."

The Buxtons then said that Bulgaria would remain quiet in case Rumania joined in the hostilities. To this the king asked: "But unconditionally?"

The answer to this was that Bulgaria must receive the annexed portion of Dobruja, detached from Bulgaria and given to Rumania in 1878.

King Charles then said: "As long as I am king I won't give an inch of our land."

Continuing the conversation King Charles said that the Transylvanian question would be difficult to solve without the cooperation of the western powers and Germany. Rumania's historic development was connected with supremacy on the Danube and access to the ocean. He believed the nation could develop along this line without definitely surrendering the province which so recently had belonged to Rumania.

Replying to the statement that Russia had promised Rumania to Rumania in case of victory over Germany and Austria, King Charles said: "The partition of the countries of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy under the Russian Aegis cannot mean anything good for us. Rumania would be completely surrounded by Russia and the weak nations subject to her."

on deck and took the boats, remaining near the sinking vessel for some time. Suddenly he observed a submarine emerging, showing no number, and with none of the crew visible. The Katwijk's captain shouted a request that the submarine tow the boats to the lightship, but no attention was paid to him and the submarine disappeared in the darkness. The Katwijk disappeared beneath the water in twenty minutes and the boats were rowed to the lightship."

LES EPARGES IS HISTORIC FIELD

French Victory Over Gallant
Foe Described by Witness of Battle.

Associated Press.
PARIS, April 15.—"The action by which we gained the mastery of the entire crest of Les Eparges on the evening of April 9 was the culmination of a prolonged and violent effort," says a French eye witness in a number of successive dispatches. "It was a victory," he continues, "analogous in the intensity of effort to that which took us to the summit of Hartmann's-Wellerkopf, and more important, if one considers the forces engaged."

"The crest of Les Eparges is a spur of 1400 yards with an altitude of 240 yards, dominating to the east the heights of the Meuse and the immense plain of the Woivre. Its sides are abrupt and slippery and it is surrounded by numerous streams. It frequently receives therefore a mountain of mud. The crest is particularly important on account of its situation and in connection with the developments of our future operations, its capture was indispensable."

VILLAGE IS PIVOT.
"At the beginning of the forward movement the French were at the village of Les Eparges, long and narrow, built on a gain ground followed. The Germans at one time placed two heavy batteries on the plain, a number of successive actions finally brought the French to the point of trying a decisive offensive. This began at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of April 5, with the capture of western summit as the object. It was raining and the fighting began in a sea of mud."

"In spite of a heavy fire from the enemy's artillery and the fact that our infantrymen hardly could lift their legs out of the mire, the French advanced steadily. After hand-to-hand fighting the French installed themselves everywhere in the German trenches except to the east, where they were stopped by aerial torpedoes which sometimes moved down entire ranks. On the sixth the Germans counter-attacked, but the fighting was wonderfully well. The French, who had been fighting without cessation since the preceding day, finally stopped, but resumed the attack the next night, when they charged with fixed bayonets and threw back the enemy."

NEW COUNTER ATTACK.
"On the seventh, covered with mud and soaked to the skin, but victorious, the French realized that since the fifth they had gained 500 yards of trenches and taken a hundred prisoners, including several officers. The French now approached their goal but when this was near, on the seventh the enemy counter-attacked with heavy reinforcements. The French artillery was waiting for them, however, and they were mowed down as they descended from their trenches. "When daylight came the order was given to finish the task. We must carry the summit if it contained the main rain was falling, rifles were clogged with mud and the use of bayonets was necessary. By midnight, after most furious fighting which interruptedly for fifteen hours, almost all the positions belonged to us, although the enemy still held a small triangle on one side. Finally, at 10 p. m., on the ninth, the entire summit was in the possession of the French, and Les Eparges now belongs to us."

KITCHENER'S ARMY ON WAY TO RENDEZVOUS

Associated Press.
LONDON, April 15.—Kitchener's army—horse, foot and artillery—is on the move once more to the great camping ground on Salisbury Plain, where soon more than 100,000 soldiers will be encamped. The winter is ended, billets and winter quarters are being emptied and all along the great main roads that lead toward the plain lines of troops can be seen on the march.

One entire brigade of ten thousand men is marching cross country from Whitby, making about seventeen miles a day under active service conditions. Following six months of hard training this is an easy task, and less than a dozen men daily have fallen out of line from all causes. The brigade is preceded by a group of buglers, whose most popular air, by general agreement is "Way Down Upon the Swanee River."

Battleship Moreno Stuck in Mud Again

Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, April 14.—The new Argentine battleship Moreno, which yesterday stuck her nose in the mud on San Baker about 50 miles down the Delaware river and remained fast, was hoisted during the night and proceeded on her way to Hampton roads. The fact that the draught was increased on down the river after freeing herself indicates that she suffered no damage. The Moreno was stuck in the mud in the Delaware once before. About two weeks ago she collided with a barge and was aground several hours.

The west bound train was approaching, but on account of a high fence was not seen until it was over an hour to clear away. It was made as both the truck and train were badly smashed. CAMPAIGN ROW IS WAGING MERRILY fitly today denied this, saying that he had merely upbraided Altman.

Wilson said this morning: "My meeting closed at 11:30 last night. Griffiths must have made direct to Altman in order to reach him at 11:45. That Griffiths instantly went to Altman to make a face evidence that he knew the man to whom he had used the words quoted in the affidavit. They said it was cowardly of me last night not to mention Altman's name, but I had withheld it at his request. I sacrificed the highest moment of the meeting, but I kept faith at such time as he should permit me to use it. I had hoped that he was in the meeting, but was not."

The meeting was by all odds the largest ever held in a local political campaign. The auditorium normally seated 1000 persons, had its sides, windows and stage wings and balconies filled to overflowing. Outside was a vast throng of people, that equalled, if not exceeded the more favored ones in number and that was addressed at some length by Kenton to Griffiths. It was estimated that about 3000 attempted or succeeded in hearing Wilson speak.

GRIFITHS ARISES. The only physical clash of the evening followed a series of verbal clashes that continued the whole two hours and a half during which Wilson spoke. Toward the end of his address Wilson read an affidavit of a person who declared he had overheard Griffiths remark on the University of California campus that he had $5000 Key Route money to bet that Irving would be elected mayor. Wilson declared that he was the signer of the affidavit not to use his name, but that the name was on the affidavit from which he was reading. He made his way rapidly to the front, signaled to Chairman Stern and secured from the latter a motion picture camera. "I am Mansel P. Griffith," he shouted, above the din the audience was making. "I demand to know who heard me make such statements as that."

Wilson repeated that his word of honor had been pledged the signer of the affidavit to inform on the platform. Identity. There were shouts of "Prove it!" "Give us the name!" "Who signed it?" and the like from the audience. Chairman Stern advised Wilson to announce the signer. The two held a hurried conference. Finally Wilson once more and finally declined to break his word.

Stern then signed to Griffith that he might proceed with his remarks and Griffith was boosted to the platform. He was starting to speak when Pendleton bumped into him and he slipped from the stage to the floor of the auditorium, unharmed.

Instantly the house was in an uproar. Men in the front rows crowded forward and in the back rows on their feet and on the chairs, gestulating and shouting wildly. Griffith was helped back to the stage.

Stern had meanwhile explained the situation to Pendleton, who stepped forward with his hand raised. The noise and confusion in the auditorium subsided. "I am offering to offer an apology to Mr. Griffith," said Pendleton. "It was a mistake for which I apologize." He offered his hand to Griffith, who seized it and the audience broke into applause. Griffith spoke briefly. He denied the truth of the allegation regarding the Key Route money. He declared he had made no such remark as the affidavit alleged and that he had no such amount of money from that, or other source to wager and denied that he knew of the existence of any such wager fund. He was given hearty applause.

But Wilson approached the meeting with the problem on his hands of replying to the challenge of Irving to prove his charge that Irving had been nominated and was being backed by the banks and public service corporations. The speaker withdrew the "and" and declared his regret that he had used it because, he said, in its technical sense, as used by Irving, he could not prove it. He could, however, and would prove the broad charge which underlay his former remarks, that the financial interests were heart and soul in Irving's campaign.

CONTRASTS NAMES. He pointed first to a map of Berkeley in which he showed that the bulk of the majority Irving secured over him in the primary election was secured in the first five precincts, lying in the southeast corner of the city where, he declared, dwelled the people of "wealth, power and privilege, the bank and corporation class." He declared that, on the petition of 1100 names which he, Wilson, received at the opening of the campaign asking him to run, there was not one name of a banker or corporation. He then took the list of endorsers to Irving's candidacy and chose 15 or 20 names from the list, giving their corporation or banking affiliation.

He declared that these men were not passively but actively in the support of Irving. He added that backing real estate interests had brought pressure to bear, by intimidation of future difficulties, upon people beholden to them to secure their support for Irving. He took up the defeat of Heywood for mayor and explained it as the result of the failure of the "interests" to continue backing Heywood when they found that his policies were against the public service corporations.

"When Mayor Heywood came to the aid of the city of Berkeley against the Key Route company," Wilson exclaimed, "this threat was cut. From that time on those who favor the Key Route company and other corporations were against him and he was a defeated man."

Wilson scored Irving at length for calling him a "dreamer" and declared that dreamers were apt to accomplish more for the common good than "cold blooded business men," which name Irving had given himself, Wilson recalled. He went after his opponent again for dubbing Mayor Heywood a "provincial," explaining that provincial meant "country, crude and rough." It was poor taste, he claimed, for Irving to call a man who had had two years before the votes of those people who were now in the Irving camp.

List of telegrams from Charlotte Perkins Gilman, Margaret Haley and other prominent suffragists was read by Wilson to show the charge of Irving that he had been but a short time a proponent of equal suffrage. These telegrams declared Wilson had been in that fight for 20 years.

An attack upon the public service corporations was delivered by the speaker, who declared that the payments of the citizens to the four important corporations in a year amounted to five times the cost of maintaining the city government. He declared that public ownership was the solution for this difficulty.

Irving had stated in his public addresses, objected Wilson, that the tax rate of Berkeley was $1.90 and that the rate of the city of San Francisco was $1.50. He said that the rate of the city of San Francisco was $1.50 and that the rate of the city of Berkeley was $1.90. He said that the rate of the city of San Francisco was $1.50 and that the rate of the city of Berkeley was $1.90.

rate of Berkeley was $1.90 and that the rate of the city of San Francisco was $1.50. He said that the rate of the city of San Francisco was $1.50 and that the rate of the city of Berkeley was $1.90. He said that the rate of the city of San Francisco was $1.50 and that the rate of the city of Berkeley was $1.90.

The speaker emphasized the fact that Irving was not alone in the race but that he was one of a pack which included also F. T. Robinson and Walter Gumpertz for council and R. T. Baird and W. T. Herms for the school board. By comparing the votes of these candidates predicted by precinct Wilson endeavored to show that their support was identical throughout the city.

The physical violence which brought interruptions from the audience on various points. R. D. Marx Green, former city attorney, objected to Wilson's statement that the Key Route had deflected its percentage payments to the city on the Phartuck avenue franchise, defending the company as being within the law. At a later time he demanded to know when Wilson was scoring the water company, if the speaker had not in the council voted to accept the compromise with the company as rates to be charged. Wilson admitted he had, because, said there was no alternative except a suit that would have cost the city an intolerable expense.

WOMAN TAKES HAND. Green himself found another opponent in the audience when Mrs. Herbert L. Gering was given a chance to reply to him. She declared that, in the recall election, Green had supported the calling of the election and argued against the charge of extravagance that the election would cost more than $50. She put this as "character testimony" against Green's carelessness with figures, and was both applauded and booed as she concluded.

The meeting was a succession of cheers, boos and hisses, impartially accorded to the speaker and his opponents. Wilson had mounted on chairs behind a row of cards on which was the legend that they were reserved for the Peoples Water Company representatives, etc. None of the chairs was occupied. He called attention to the fact that Irving had appointed Mayor Heywood, State Treasurer F. W. Richardson and Judge William W. White to serve as a committee to hear Wilson's support of his charges, but that none of these had been willing to serve and none had attended.

ASHAMED OF HER BAD COMPLEXION

Many an otherwise attractive girl is a social failure because of a poor complexion. If your skin is not naturally fresh, smooth and glowing, or has suffered from an unwise use of cosmetics, Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment will almost surely clear it in a normal, healthy way. It is so easy too!

Just bathe your face for several minutes with Resinol Soap and hot water, working the creamy lather into the skin gently with the finger tips. Then wash off with more Resinol Soap and warm water, finishing with a dash of clear, cold water to close the pores. Do this regularly once or twice a day, occasionally spreading on a little Resinol Ointment for ten or fifteen minutes before using Resinol Soap, and you will be astonished how quickly the healing, antiseptic Resinol medication soothes and cleanses the pores, removes pimples and blackheads, and leaves the complexion clear, fresh and velvety. Resinol Soap and Ointment are sold by all druggists. For trial free, write to Dept. 15-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.—Advertisement.

SIXTY MILES IS REALLY SPEEDY

So Says Girl, But Judge Believes Less Is Punishable.

Sixty miles per hour in an automobile is the rate of speed which Miss Florence Saxo, pretty fiancée of C. W. Moore of Modesto, considers fast, according to her actions in the justice court of Judge Richmond at Niles yesterday.

Moore, owner of a stripped racing car, and Miss Saxo were on their way to Oakland when they were overtaken by Speed-cop Leslie Wright near Niles for making the county speed ordinance. They were traveling at something over 50 miles per hour.

When arrested Moore admitted that he had been breaking the speed limit but he insisted upon a hearing, and trial by jury. He was promptly convicted, after Deputy District Attorney Myron Harbo had given the facts to the jury and the defendant reiterated his admission of guilt.

"However, I don't think that I ought to be fined," declared Moore.

"We were not traveling very fast," spoke up Miss Saxo.

"What do you call fast?" inquired Deputy Harris.

"Oh, about 60 miles per hour," was the young woman's reply.

When Justice Moore stated that he had no ill feelings toward his prosecutors, he shook hands all around and said to Judge Richmond:

"It's all right; we may want to come back this way and get a marriage license."

Mr. Vinton has lived seventeen years in Burma and has traveled through almost all parts.

POETICAL CANDIDATE IS HEARD FROM; EXPENSES ARE FIGURED IN RHYME

J. E. Breitwiser, recently defeated candidate for councilman from the Second Ward in Alameda, is no sadder, but wiser, as the result of his experiences, according to his itemized statement of receipts and expenditures filed with County Recorder Barton today.

It may have been that the council would be no place for a worker of the poetic muse, it may have been something else, but the voters overlooked a genius in their midst if the successes of the former mayor of San Francisco, Edward Robeson Taylor, are to be considered. This is the poetic version of the campaign, with its financial outlay and honest confession.

"No friends furnished money so far; I spent $28 for ads. in the Times-Star and got full value in fun—I had ten times more in experience, by gad. Received more votes than I expected, but lacked 3000 of being elected; and I am much happier now than if I had been made a councilman."

So I should worry.

Breitwiser's itemized statement is the first one of the recent candidates in the Alameda election to be filed.

BAKERS TO BE HOSTS AT ELABORATE DANCE

Committee of arrangement—Frank Niek, James Shea, Tony Silvia, A. J. Parson, Andrew O'Brien, Victor Dieudonne.

Floor managers—Frank Niek, Tony Silvia.

Reception committee—George Carey, James J. Johnson, John Peterson, T. F. Thole, Al Winter, Chas. Peterson, Tony Musch, Otto Muschoner Paul Fuher and Frank Perry.

Sees Battle Between Marines and Filipino

SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 16.—A visitor from the back country, returning through the San Diego Exposition grounds a few days ago, strolled to the Fourth U. S. Marine camp, which is situated between the Canyon Cabana and Canyon Expos. Just as he strolled through a grove of palm trees a soldier dashed past him, heavily armed with a score of half-naked Filipinos waving, lolos and yelling with glee. A moment later there was a volley of rifles and a battle of marines in chase.

The back country visitor didn't wait any longer. He dove through the palm trees and would have kept going for a mile had not a stalwart man who used speaking language tripped him up and sat on him. When the rifle fire ended the visitor was allowed to get up.

"You darn near ruined the best battle picture I ever got," said his captor. "Can't you see that camera there?" Examination showed a motion picture camera at work on a Filipino grange in which has been enlisted the full battalion of marines, together with the cavalry and artillery from the government posts in San Diego. Even the Filipinos were in proper dress, or undressed and painted within an inch of their lives. Within 100 feet of the company director were gathered several thousand persons watching the "battle."

NON-PARTISAN BILL FOR PASSAGE TODAY

By Associated Press. SACRAMENTO, April 16.—On file for final consideration in the Senate today were the administration bills to establish non-partisan state elections. Final amendments were put on the bills yesterday and at the request of Senator Benson, who is steering the bills through their final course, they were made a special order for 2 p. m.

Although Senator Wolfe and Senator Ballant, Republicans, had said they would declare their opposition to the bills, it was known that no attempt to delay passage or prevent passage of the bills would be made. There were believed to be not more than ten negative votes, and passage through the Senate was finally conceded.

The morning session was expected to be continued with debate on the Federal Insurance rating bill, which was put over for a final fight from yesterday. It was set for special order at 11 a. m.

AUDITORIUM STAFF NOT PERMANENT

Corps of Employees to Be Used
When Needed; Not Otherwise.

Commissioner Harry S. Anderson has made the following statement concerning the organization of the staff of employees at the municipal auditorium:

"My attention has been called to what appears to be a misunderstanding in the public mind as to the number of employees who will be required to operate the municipal auditorium.

"In order that the people of Oakland shall have definite and correct information as to this matter, I desire to call their attention to the fact that no person may be employed by the city council whose position has not been previously created by ordinance. Further than that, under the civil service regulations in force in the city government, these positions must be classified. In order that the municipal auditorium may be open for business, it is necessary under the charter of the city, to create in advance every position which is required under the maximum service which the auditorium can give. In other words, every possible contingency of required employment must be provided for by ordinance in advance.

"To this end the city council has passed to print an ordinance creating seventy-five positions. In the event that the arena and theater were in full service simultaneously, this entire staff would be needed during that time of service. Sixty-four of the positions created are under a daily wage schedule. These sixty-four persons, or such part of them as may be needed, will be used only as the service at the auditorium requires. They are not permanently paid positions. For instance, provision is made for sixteen ushers at a salary of 75 cents per show each. It may be necessary at times to use the entire sixteen. It may be necessary to use only four or five or any small part of this number as created but the positions must be created by ordinance in advance to meet the requirements of the charter and civil service regulations. The same condition obtains in the matter of the ten positions of extra ticket takers, also as in the case of extra sellers, etc. The positions covering the operation of the theater stage, including eight stage hands, extra stage carpenter, and the like, are handled in the same way.

"It should be clearly understood that this staff of employees is not permanent and none of the positions will be filled except as to the use of the Auditorium by the people and the service rendered to the people may require."

MODERN WOODMEN HERE FOR FRATERNAL DAY

High officials of the Modern Woodmen of America will arrive today and will remain to take part in the Fraternal Day ceremonies April 22. In the party will be Director S. S. Tanner, Editor F. O. Van Gilder of Illinois, and Dr. Rutledge of Colorado. They will be present at an open meeting of the Oakland camp, in St. George's hall, Twenty-fifth and Grove streets, 8:30 o'clock, tonight. The Fraternal Day committee, of which state Deputy H. V. Rees is chairman and J. F. Bethel, clerk of Oakland Camp No. 236, is secretary-treasurer, has arranged a number of meetings to be held preliminary to the Fraternal Day sessions. Monday night fifty persons will be initiated at the class adoption meeting in K. of P. hall, Valencia street, near Market street, San Francisco. Tuesday evening a banquet will be given the head camp officers in a San Francisco restaurant. Immediately following the Fraternal Day parade the $500 prize drill competition will be held in the Exposition stadium.

GEARY CAMPAIGN WAGON SUBJECT FOR KICKER

An anonymous letter requesting that Judge William R. Geary, candidate for a city commissionership, be made to take a large coal truck on which an enormous house-shaped sign has been erected, out of the yard between the county jail and the court house, where the judges' automobiles are parked during working hours, was received by District Attorney Hynes today.

The big truck, covered with blue and red letters of enormous height, is left nightly in this space, and the anonymous letter writer objects strenuously to the procedure. Hynes threw the anonymous letter in the waste paper basket.

"I won't receive a letter that is not signed," he said. "Some of these nameless kickers seem to think I'm a policeman. That's the sheriff's business. The court house yard is public property."

ELABORATE PROGRAM IN RAILROAD EXHIBIT

The A. P. G. U., the leading literary society of Saint Mary's College, has begun preparations for its annual entertainment, which will be presented in the Alumni Gymnasium on the evening of April 20. The show will include special singing and dramatic numbers, several novelties and there are also plays. The sketches to be presented are: "The Author" in which Frederick Merrill Kerrick will assume the leading role, and "Midnight" and "The Frame-Up," both from the pen of Louis Pelan LeFevre, moderator of the society. J. Emmett McVane is cast for the lead in "Midnight" and will be supported by Leo Cunningham and Edward M. Glade. In "The Frame-Up" the parts will be interpreted by Lawrence Anderson, Andrew Perovich, Val Fleming, Harry Goster and William Penner. The business end of the affair is being taken care of by Roy Niles, treasurer of the A. P. G. U.

COMPLAINT ANSWERED.
Complaint that dredging in the Oakland estuary by Oakland has damaged beaches in Alameda, was answered by City Attorney Dan F. Woolner and Harbor Manager W. W. Keith of Oakland with the statement that this dredging has ceased almost a month ago, and that an examination of the beaches by experts had shown that they are not damaged by the dumping so far. Woolner reported the matter to the city council.

UNION MEN NOT LIKED BY POSTAL

However, if Men Do Work
Right They Will Not Be Disturbed.

CHICAGO, April 15.—The Postal Telegraph and Cable Company, accused before the United States Commission on Industrial Relations of overworking its men for inadequate pay, has replied through T. N. Powers, manager of the operating department of the Chicago office. The regular day trip of telegraphers is nine hours; other trips are shorter, he testified.

"It is impossible at times for men to obtain lunch relief," asked Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the commission. "At times when business is very heavy, as at the beginning of the war," Mr. Powers replied, and added:

"When business decreases an extra list is crowded by men who are anxious to pick up what money they can rather than be idle."

Mr. Walsh explained that one of the Postal telegraphers who testified feared that his adverse comment on the company would cost him and his companions, who also testified, their positions. "Not at all, so long as they observe the rules of the company," answered the witness.

Mr. Powers read a list of employees, giving their earnings, ranging from $40 for new and inexperienced men, to $113 to the best men. He gave the earnings of Yarrington, one of the extra list men who testified yesterday, as $52 the first month. Later, he said Yarrington grew so irregular that his earnings dropped to $37 in one month.

The witness stated that he would not hire a member of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union, but would not disturb a member already holding a position and doing his work right.

"They are all right so long as they don't bring the union into the office," he said.

PAROLE-CITIZEN BILL IS PASSED

Three Years' Good Behavior
Compels Restoration Under Senate Mandate.

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, April 15.—The Governor is required to give a full discharge and restoration to citizenship of all convicts who have been on parole from state prisons for three years, according to a bill by Senator Finn, passed through the Senate yesterday by a vote of 23 to 13.

"It will be an incentive for parole prisoners to make good," said Finn. "The parole law is very strict, and a man's parole has no civil rights, he is kept out of places of amusement and he cannot even get married."

Chandler of Fresno, opposing the bill, declared:

"This is a bad law. It is interfering with the decisions of the courts, and is setting a precedent that a man's parole deserves a certain number of years in prison."

"When a man has been on parole for three years and has made a good and clean life it is proof enough that he should enjoy all the rights of citizenship," said Wolfe of San Francisco.

The move was cast by Anderson, Bird, Hall, Chandler, Ferguson, Cobb, Finn, Jones, Kehoe, Luce, Medford, Owens, Seneater and Thompson.

Minorities are given the right to establish by ordinance city parking regulations to serve in an advisory capacity for the regulation of city growth along aesthetic and utilitarian lines in a bill by Senator Carr, passed by the Senate yesterday. It was drawn by City Attorney Long of San Francisco and recommended by city attorneys of the large cities.

Adjournment at the end of the day was taken on motion of Senator Scott out of respect to the 50th anniversary of the death of Abraham Lincoln.

CONSOLIDATION BILL FOR LOS ANGELES FAILS

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, April 15.—An attempt by City Attorney Al Stephens and Mayor of Los Angeles to revise the Consolidation bill supplying an enabling act for a consolidated city and county government of Los Angeles failed in the Senate yesterday. The bill was recommended by the committee on city government and the Los Angeles county senators opposed the bill and the committee failed to carry it.

The committee recommended passage of the bill by a vote of 12 to 10. The bill would have created a consolidated city and county government for Los Angeles, and the money for water drainage and storage facilities to be raised by a bond issue.

WOMAN WEEPS FOR JUDGE ON TRIAL

Del Norte Jurist, Defending
Himself From Impeachment, Draws Tears.

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, April 15.—Witnesses from Del Norte county testified last night before the assembly subcommittee investigating the impeachment charges against Superior Judge John L. Childs that the jurist is not such a "terror" in his county as he had been pictured. The Rev. A. F. Walters of Crescent City, who performed a charge of criminal law against the jurist, and who is regarded as a star witness for the complainants, said that he would be friendly to Judge Childs if the judge would make any advance toward that end.

Rev. Walters was the central figure in the Del Norte case, which is one of the many incidents cited in the petition to show that Judge Childs is unfit to occupy the judicial office. The jurist, it is charged, officiated in the hearing at Crescent City in the dual role of prosecutor and counsel for the defense where he himself was on trial. The minister said that the jurist returned by three judges of the peace and a special grand jury impeached by Judge Childs was favorable to the jurist.

Throughout the entire examination last night Judge Childs handled his own defense. He drew tears from Mrs. Frances Alva, a witness of Crescent City, when he asked her to describe some of the incidents of her long acquaintance. She told how Judge Childs rendered her financial assistance after her husband had been seriously injured in a logging accident.

R. E. Williams, former president of the bank of Crescent City, and W. L. Nichols, county clerk, testified as to the jurist's interest in the organization of the bank, and that no grand jury had been impeached during the years of 1911, 1912 or 1913.

At the resumption of the hearing the committee announced that the objections raised Wednesday night to the jurist's defense did not warrant a discontinuance of the investigation.

ARRESTED WITHOUT CAUSE.
Louis Vincent, formerly employed on the steamer President, who was taken into custody by the police and later released following an investigation into why he persisted in walking back and forth in front of a house occupied by a young woman at Fifth and Market streets, was, it appears, awaiting the return of Mr. and Mrs. George Lehner, at whose house he had called during their absence. It had previously been given out that Vincent had a book in his possession containing the names of young women in Oakland with comments upon their personal beauty and sociability and that he had come over from San Francisco to see if the information of the book was correct. On inquiry the police found, however, that the book merely contained the address of Mr. and Mrs. Lehner, whom Vincent had met on the steamer and on whom he promised he would call.

RAIL JUMPER ARRESTED.
Edgar D. Byron, who is alleged to have jumped his bail, amounting to $5000, at Long Beach, California, was recognized last by Inspectors Wood and McSorley, at Fifteenth and Washington streets, and captured after a short chase through the streets.

Byron was arrested at Long Beach on a charge of burglary and held to answer. He was released on $5000 bail and left town before his case came up for trial. He will be sent to Long Beach.

TRANSFER OF A $15,000 FUND FOR STATE FAIR PREMIUMS TO THE DIRECTORS OF THE PANAMA-PACIFIC EXPOSITION COMING UPON ABANDONMENT OF THE STATE FAIR THIS FALL IS AUTHORIZED IN A BILL RECOMMENDED BY THE SENATE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE.

A large decrease in the number of persons killed by hunters mistaking them for deer is expected from a bill by Senator Kehoe designed to simplify court procedure in cases on appeal by permitting appellants to submit either printed or typewritten copies of transcripts passed by the assembly on recommendation after a debate last week. Byron of San Francisco opposed on the ground that it would affect printing concerns.

IRRIGATION DISTRICTS WOULD BE GIVEN POWER TO CONDEMN MINING CLAIMS AND DITCHES UNDER THE TERMS OF THE DENNETT BILL PASSED BY THE ASSEMBLY. THE BILL AMENDS AN ACT TO REGULATE THE IRRIGATION LAWS, WHICH HAS OBTAINED SINCE THE EARLY MINING DAYS.

A bill by Ellis which passed would prevent the dissolution of irrigation districts where federal contracts are involved unless the government gives its assent. Irrigation districts are empowered to include railroad rights of ways in the formation of new districts under a bill by Dennett, which received approval.

ANTI-INJUNCTION BILL DENATURED

Proponents Accept Disputed
Amendments, Thus Winning Eventual Passage.

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, April 15.—A final vote on the anti-injunction bill, an organized labor measure of leading interest, was put off yesterday when the senate carved most of the vitality out of the bill by adding three amendments.

One amendment which was originally opposed by the labor side of the bill was presented by them yesterday in its first form. The bill prohibited the issuing of any injunction against men preventing others to strike. The amendment added the words "by peaceful means." Early in the fight friends of the bill said they would rather have no bill than add this phrase. It is a pull of the senate showed that the bill could not pass in its first form, and its supporters concluded they would rather have a denatured anti-injunction bill than none at all. By accepting the "peaceful means" amendment they won over three or four original opponents, and it was adopted after a long night by a vote of 25 to 15. One of the 15 who opposed the amendment.

WHERE LINES APPEAR.
The real lineup of the supporters of anti-injunction was shown on a second amendment offered by Benedict of Los Angeles. It struck out the part of the bill declaring that the right to do business is a right of property. It was adopted, 21 to 17.

Another lesser amendment was adopted, and the bill with its amendments was sent to the printer. It will not be up for a final vote for several days but it is believed that it will pass in its greatly modified form.

Roll call on the property right amendment, taken as about the true division on the anti-injunction issue was:

Yea: Ferguson, Benson, Cohn, Crowley, Duncan, Finn, Flaherty, Gerdner, Hanna, Irwin, Kehoe, Luce, Lyon, Scott, Slater, Tyrrell, Wolfe—17.

Nay: Alva, Childs, Benedict, Bird, Chandler, Cogswell, Flint, Jones, King, Maddux, Mott, Owens, Purkitt, Shearer, Stuckenbruck, Thompson—21.

Irrigation districts are empowered to include railroad rights of ways in the formation of new districts under a bill by Dennett, which received approval.

TRANSFER OF A $15,000 FUND FOR STATE FAIR PREMIUMS TO THE DIRECTORS OF THE PANAMA-PACIFIC EXPOSITION COMING UPON ABANDONMENT OF THE STATE FAIR THIS FALL IS AUTHORIZED IN A BILL RECOMMENDED BY THE SENATE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE.

A large decrease in the number of persons killed by hunters mistaking them for deer is expected from a bill by Senator Kehoe designed to simplify court procedure in cases on appeal by permitting appellants to submit either printed or typewritten copies of transcripts passed by the assembly on recommendation after a debate last week. Byron of San Francisco opposed on the ground that it would affect printing concerns.

IRRIGATION DISTRICTS WOULD BE GIVEN POWER TO CONDEMN MINING CLAIMS AND DITCHES UNDER THE TERMS OF THE DENNETT BILL PASSED BY THE ASSEMBLY. THE BILL AMENDS AN ACT TO REGULATE THE IRRIGATION LAWS, WHICH HAS OBTAINED SINCE THE EARLY MINING DAYS.

A bill by Ellis which passed would prevent the dissolution of irrigation districts where federal contracts are involved unless the government gives its assent. Irrigation districts are empowered to include railroad rights of ways in the formation of new districts under a bill by Dennett, which received approval.

Chinese Eggs Must Bear Label, Is Order

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, April 15.—Three bills to require that imported Chinese eggs and food products in which the eggs form an ingredient shall be properly labeled passed the Assembly yesterday. The measures, by Bonds of Sebastopol, had the support of Petaluma poultry raisers and were opposed by promoters of hatcheries.

One of the bills requires hotels and restaurants to state on their menus if Chinese eggs are used for cooking purposes. The Senate health committee recommended a bill requiring that cold storage eggs be labeled unless they are refrigerated more than thirty days.

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With The Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of Othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

Labor Camp Bill Is Favorably Reported

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, April 15.—One of the recommendations of the housing and immigration commission's report criticizing living conditions in connection with the Westland Pop riots of 1913, as charged out in a bill sponsored by Benedict, but presented by the commission which was recommended favorably by the Senate public health committee yesterday. Its requirements for sanitary and wholesome conditions for labor camps include proper drainage, an abundant supply of fresh air in sleeping quarters, cleanliness in kitchens and mess rooms, separation by at least 60 feet of stables and cook houses, privy water supply, simple washing and bathing facilities, including tubs, shower baths or protected stream bathing, and in cases of 10 or more people a hospital tent or house.

SEEKS STRANGE BOARDER.

ALAMEDA, April 15.—Mrs. Annie R. Weeks, 1515 Broadway, this city, is looking for a man who rented a room at her home a few days ago. The stranger remained at the Weeks home one night, after making all preparations to board himself and son, who he said was in Berkeley, and then disappeared.

Mrs. Weeks believes that the stranger is working a new game to obtain board and lodging free of charge.

Opening of Twelfth Avenue to Be Urged

Immediate opening of Twelfth avenue to the Bay is expected to result from a resolu- tion of the Manufacturers' Com- mittee of the Chamber of Commerce and Commercial Club held last night. Curtis Wright Jr. was appointed chairman of a committee, which will advocate that the avenue be opened forthwith. The grati- tude committee of the Manufacturers' As- sociation explained that by reason of Twelfth avenue not being open manu- facturers are obliged to go more than three miles to deliver their goods to ships in the harbor. They said this involves heavy costs in time and money every day. It was the general sense of the meeting that the opening be deferred no longer and the committee was instructed to take active steps immediately.

Can a piano manufacturer afford

Of course he can, for he is doing it because, as we have explained ones direct from his factory.

THE SOCIAL BUSYBODY AND THE BUSINESS BOY.

We wonder how many among the men of efficiency and distinction in the current life of California would have been thwarted in their development—sidetracked and perhaps defeated in their best ambitions—by a law similar to that now under consideration at Sacramento to prohibit business activities on the part of boys under fourteen years of age? We venture the suggestion that such a law enforced half a century ago would have lost to the California of today much of the competence and the energy of its most effective working forces. Go where you will in the United States, particularly in the West, investigate thoroughly its professional and business life, and you will find that three men out of five began their career in childhood, and found previous to the age limit proposed, the beginnings of the discipline, the courage, the thrift, which have made them what they are. It is probably true that in the rough and tumble of early business life youthful adventurers came to knowledge of some things from which we would sentimentally like to shield immaturity. But were they really worse for this knowledge? Is inoculation in certain phases of worldly wisdom less dangerous to early maturity than to adolescence? Let us put it straight—is not the midnight messenger boy of eighteen in more serious moral danger through developed propensities than the undeveloped boy of twelve? We write not without some basis of knowledge, not without some experience of conditions both evil and good as affecting the life of the working lad.

In the opinion of The Tribune this effort to restrict the activities of boyhood is a product of that meddling spirit, of which we have far too much these days, which is tremendously busy in minding other people's business. There is a pest of amiable virtuosity active in the effort to regulate the private affairs of other people. Men and women who have nothing else to do, most of them with small practical experience of life, are seeking to make rules to control every fact and every function of human activity. It is a meddling, and in its effect, a vicious spirit. For the most part it is a product of an overwrought vanity; its activities are chiefly maintained under the motives, if they could be definitely gotten at, of "ambition to 'do something'" in the way of social regulation without real knowledge as to what is helpful and what is harmful. The legislature would do well to keep its hands off from the multitude of industrious little merchants, most of them carrying serious responsibilities of domestic support, who in one way or another are contributing their mites to the general business life of the community.

FRUITION IN TOKYO.

The correspondent of the London Morning Post writes to that journal a long letter from Tokyo, in which attention is called to what seems to be an effort on the part of the Japanese press to engender feeling hostile to the United States. At one time it is stated, the vernacular press was so menacing that Americans in Japan were constrained to appeal to the authorities to restrain its offensive outbursts and "unpardonable mendacities." After this complaint had been made, there was some abatement of the tirade, but unpleasant talk concerning the injustice of Californians to the Japanese still continues. Says the correspondent of the London Post, "The time has come to ask what it means."

The attempts upon the part of American Peace Societies and others to meet the situation with talk has proved wholly futile. The Japanese are tired of having delegations, committees and commissions coming to them with lectures, addresses, speeches, sermons and pamphlets telling how much the American people admire and like them. Speech does not count for much with the Japanese. They are practical and they want deeds. They judge Americans by what they do, not by what they say. The fundamental question revolves around the right to citizenship in America. It is the opinion of impartial foreigners residing in Japan that if the Japanese government asks the American government to grant the right of citizenship to Japanese now living in this country the dispute about land ownership will come to an end, "but," says the correspondent writing from Tokyo, "if Japan does not come out and frankly face the question by asking for citizenship, then America owes it to herself and the world for the sake of international peace to ask for an understanding with Japan, and to ascertain whether in case Japan wants the privileges of naturalization extended to her subjects in this country, she is prepared to grant all the reciprocal rights and privileges involved."

The question is not quite so easy and so simply adjusted as the writer we have been quoting and many other persons seem to think. Naturalization is a conceivable solution of the present Japanese difficulties on the Pacific coast but practically the extension of the privileges of the naturalization laws, to the Japanese is out of the question. Congress at the present time would not, it is obvious, pass a bill admitting the Japanese or any other Orientals to citizenship.

The war is giving the women of England, militant and others, opportunities which under normal conditions would long have been denied. Women, we are told, are taking an active part in many spheres of activity from which they have been traditionally barred. They are filling many clerical positions in business houses where no women were ever employed before. They have taken over a large part of the work in electrical industries hitherto open only to men. One of the latest openings is the driving of motor vans and of taxicabs. Labor never before permitted to women. The movement is being urged by organized effort, a society known as the Women's Emergency Corps acting as promoting agent for the placing of women in places vacated by men drawn into the armies. The effect of these changes will, we think, be important in their relation to the demand on the part of women for a larger share in the political life of the country. Women engaged in practical industry, women doing effective work, will be able to make much stronger appeal in behalf of the votes-for-women movement than women of the supported and protected classes. Again, the cessation of the votes-for-women campaign which has so troubled England during the past year is bound to have its influence in softening the asperities created by militant activity. The demonstration that even the most offensive of the militants is under the pinch of necessity a devoted and self-sacrificing patriot is bound to have its weight. Almost certainly and as one of the social effects of a war which is bound to alter fundamentally the organization of British society the women of England will gain the franchise.

TEXTILE INDUSTRIES ENDANGERED.

Inability to obtain dyes from Germany threatens paralysis of the textile industry of the country. This branch of manufacturing employs approximately 400,000 persons, consumes $625,392,000 in products to which should be added a little more than $257,000,000 for labor. The importance of this industry is obvious.

Viewing with anxiety the future of textiles, a committee of manufacturers visited the President Tuesday and informed him of the situation, declaring that unless relief can be obtained there is a possibility, even a probability, of many of the greatest mills in the United States closing down. With that psychological cheerfulness that has characterized his conduct in office, the Chief Magistrate promised to take up the matter, pledged his State Department to open the door for the importation of the needed coloring matter and sent the delegation away in an apparently happy frame of mind, according to the authorized version sent from the White House.

It is easy to make promises. It requires no effort to tell distressed mill men that the matter will be attended to at once. But the fulfillment may be more difficult. The allied powers are engaged in crippling Germany. That their efforts are by no means futile is manifest from a story in The Tribune under a London date to the effect that 50,000 tons of provisions designed for neutral ports have been virtually confiscated by Great Britain and sold under the jurisdiction of the prize courts of the United Kingdom, the purchasers being English as a matter of course. While it is true that American consignors will receive pay for their goods, that cuts little figure. The point is that Germany is deprived of the stuff intended for her ports.

President Wilson says the matter will be attended to. But how? Presuming negotiations are opened with Germany for the materials needed, there is no doubt that Germany is willing to sell. But what of the exchange? It is no more than fair to assume the Kaiser's government will say in answer to any appeal that may be made: "We are more than willing to supply you with the dyes-stuffs you need. We have them for sale in quantities. We realize that a great industry in your country is threatened with disaster and unless we come to your relief you will suffer industrially. But what can you do for us in exchange for this relief?"

Assuming that our thespian Secretary of State promises that in exchange for the receipt of these dyes-stuffs, this nation will send to Germany wheat, corn, or other foods, how shall we redeem our pledges following the precedents already set? There is no way except by an emphatic declaration that if our commerce is interfered with we shall use our military and naval forces to protect it. There is no other way.

It looks as if the inventive faculty of our people must be our one resource for preserving our textile industries. Practically no relief can be expected from the administration. Our diplomacy is of a marshmallow variety, a sort of macaroon, so to speak, full of the sugar of promise, but containing but little of the nutriment of fulfillment.

In the belief that the great Exposition is a thing of extraordinary educational value, the Tribune now for several weeks has been arranging for parties of boys and girls to visit the Exposition grounds as its guests. These young people have been requested, after viewing the wonders of the great show, to write for the Tribune letters narrating their experiences and giving their impressions. Last Sunday's Tribune contained several columns of contributions from its young friends, and the character of the letters clearly indicate a combination of natural talent with the results of training afforded by the incomparable schools of our East Bay communities. The Tribune is proud of the efforts of its younger readers and hopes to hear further from them.

Many of the hotels of San Francisco, having raised their rates for the Exposition and not finding business so great as they expected are now on the verge of being sorry. Houses which cleared out regular patrons would call them back again with sad strains of friendship. While the big downtown hotels are flooded with business, the smaller places are howling to the moon. Rather than pay the prices visitors go to private houses. Rather than pay the prices they stay in Oakland and find it much pleasanter on this side of the bay, whence they can reach the Exposition by boat in a few minutes and at the same time enjoy the salt air and a sail.

There has just been held in Chattanooga a very large and enthusiastic convention for the purpose of giving support to the plans which contemplate the building of a modern highway from Chicago to Miami, Florida. The Governors of several states attended the convention and there was large representation from commercial bodies in Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, Tennessee, Georgia, Florida and other states. Great interest was developed in the project and the road will probably be built within the next two years.

It is one of the marvels of the ultra-reforming mind that whenever it sets out to do business it proceeds to courses more raw and more gross than those which it so loudly professes to condemn. Here are our local recallers, self-confessed champions of purity, truth and all the other virtues, exposed in multiplied acts of fraud, forgery, perjury and false impersonation. By what curious magic is it that your ultra-purist almost invariably turns out a thoroughgoing scoundrel?

The United States government is still sending war vessels and marines to Nicaragua. Our government has been upholding a President in power there for upwards of two years by force of arms, and during that period we have had a body of marines stationed at the Nicaragua capital. The people of the United States seem to be quite generally unaware of the fact that we are in reality carrying on a small war.

Protest against the appeal that the Liberty Bell be sent to California, on the ground that in a possible railroad wreck this precious relic might be injured, has its basis in two unworthy motives—timidity and selfishness. The Liberty Bell would better be injured in a railroad wreck than to be held so sacredly exempt from chance of accident as to fail of its highest possible service. By all means the Liberty Bell ought to come to California.

A Romance from Puck.

The handsome patient's fine brown eyes followed his lovely nurse as she moved basely about the sick-room, now smoothing his pillow with a fairy-light touch, now placing a hand of exquisite coolness on his fevered brow, seeming like an ethereal being from another world.

"Nurse," sighed the sick young millionaire, "will you let me say something that has been on my mind?"

She glided to the side of his bed, her snowy uniform rustling like angel's wings.

Her patient managed to catch one of her cool hands between both of his, and she allowed it to remain there.

"Nurse," he said, slowly, "I am a man of sentiment and a slave to convention.

Conventional sentiment demands that a sick young millionaire must fall in love with his poor but charming nurse, and marry her. I have been watching the calm play of your classic features, studying your angelic nature as you ministered sweetly to my querulous wants. You are the ideal nurse of convention. I am the sick young millionaire."

Tenderly, while she cast down her violet eyes he patting her hand.

"Alas, nurse," he mused, "I am married."

Thoughtfully, she returned the pat.

"So am I," she replied, gently.

Frankfurters of Whale Meat.

Frankfurters made of whale meat are nothing to be quite the thing in Denmark, according to Elmar Henriksen.

A mechanical engineer of Tonsberg, Norway, who is in this country.

"There has been developed in Norway in the last few years a new field of industry," said Mr. Henriksen. "This is the designing and manufacture of machinery for cutting up whales. It requires special machinery, of course, and the investigation of the whale in relation to the kind of machinery required for dissecting it developed the comparatively new industry of using whale meat for frankfurters. A big business has grown out of this. Most of the whale meat is sent to Denmark and there made into frankfurters. Whale meat tastes not unlike beef and is very nutritious. I have frequently eaten whale steaks."

JUDGE FINDS SAPPHIRA CLUB

Three Women Perjurors to One Ananias, He Tells State Solons

SACRAMENTO, April 16.—"There is three times as much perjury by women in divorce suits as by men," declared Judge Charles Munroe in an argument for bills providing restrictions against fraud and collusion in divorce before the Senate Judiciary Committee tonight. Judge Munroe said he had tried all the divorce cases in Los Angeles county for four years.

"The women are three to one in the plaintiff for divorce," he said. "But that does not mean that women are the greatest seekers of divorce. If there are no children or property rights to settle the man always lets the woman get the divorce. The spirit of gallantry prevails generally."

"Do you mean then that women commit more perjury than men?" asked Senator Campbell. "I regret that there is a woman present to hear me say it, but it is true that there is three times as much perjury among women," replied Judge Munroe. "I do not simply to prevent fraud and collusion, but for the protection of innocent children," he said the bills were an urgent necessity. Judge Walter Bordwell and Bishop Johnson of Los Angeles; J. P. Langhorne, representing Bishop Nichols of San Francisco, and others, appeared for the bill, which has received only an advisory recommendation of the committee. Action was deferred pending amendments.

BERKELEY, April 16.—Warned by the president of the University that the tone of wit and art in the Pelican, the college joke magazine, must be improved, that journal was issued today in a much more dignified and less glibly caricatured past issue. Howard and other members of the English club were invited to a conference by President Wheeler. The president believes that the time has come to amend this feature of the issue, which contained a number of perfectly polite jokes and pictures.

COSTUMES OF
OLDEN DAYS
AT BALL

Oakland society will go back to the days of great-grandmothers at the Colonial Ball at the Oakland Hotel tomorrow evening and the quaint penner costumes and powdered hair of the period with it is hoped gallants in satin knee breeches will make a picturesque party in the ivory ballroom and in the dining room, where many of the tables will be set.

The idea is to be carried out in decorations, which will be old-fashioned flowers, moss roses, wagnettes and forget-me-nots. They are to be arranged by Mrs. J. F. Carlson and her assistants with dancing boys of tulle in contrasting colors. Mrs. L. H. Webster and her committee will have charge of the quaint formal necessities in lace paper holders, which will be sold for the benefit of the Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, for which the ball is planned. For the men there will be buttonholes in frills of lace paper. Colonial fans that will be especially pretty and dainty will be offered by Mrs. Harry East Miller and her assistants. They will be very small, of painted silk with Watteau figures and tied with big bows of ribbon. Sweet-smelling sandalwood fans will also be in the assortment of the vendors.

Old-fashioned candy, like peppermints, Turkish Delight, candied ginger and orange peel will be sold by Mrs. Wickham Havens and members of her committee. So also will cigars and cigarettes for the men who have no taste for sweets.

Reservations for tables for the dinner will close this evening, but tickets to the dance will be sold until late tomorrow evening and many guests will come in after dinner. The committees in charge of plans for the ball are made up as follows:

YOUNG VOICES IN MIGHTY SONG
SCHOOL CHORISTERS AT EXPOSITION
BAND THREE HUNDRED STRONG

Three hundred boys and girls, pupils in Oakland's elementary schools, ranging in ages from 10 to 14 years, are entertaining visitors from all parts of the world today, in a band concert, orchestra recital and choral program in Festival hall at the Panama-Pacific Exposition. The unusual event of a band of grammar school children performing in the great Festival hall has attracted a great crowd of music lovers.

Glenn H. Woods, director of music of the Oakland schools, is in general charge of the day's program. The children were trained by Woods, with the assistance of the three supervisors of music in the department. The members of the band were trained by Herman Truener, who is supervisor of bands and orchestras of the school department, with the assistance of Albert Humphrey, instructor in that department. A triple program was given by the children. The band boys, neatly uniformed in blue coat and white trousers, have appeared at the exposition on several other occasions, but today is the first appearance of the choral singers and orchestral players in a large public performance. This is the first time, however, that any of the youthful performers have appeared in Festival hall.

The elementary school band, chorus and orchestra have been under the training of the Oakland school department instructors for the past year, in anticipation of numerous appearances at the exposition. These children represent the young musical element of Alameda county during the exposition year, as the 1915 chorus of 300 voices, led by Alexander Stewart, officially represents this county's musical fraternity.

The youthful musicians and singers are members of the seventh and eighth grades of the elementary schools. The 300 were picked from among a thousand, and all have been especially trained for the exposition appearances. All pupils who desired to visit the exposition today and attend the Festival hall event were granted permission to do so by the Board of Education. Most of the pupils were attended by their parents or friends. Chaperones were provided for unattended girls who were in the party, while the small boys were placed in the care of their class teachers in the event that their parents were unable to accompany them.

None of the pupils will be permitted to remain at the exposition after 6 o'clock this evening unless fortified with a note from their parents, granting them that liberty.

The players, singers, visitors and their attendants left the city in a body this morning, taking a Key route boat from the local pier at 9 o'clock. A special round trip rate was granted by the ferry officials for the occasion.

BIG VERDICT GIVEN.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—L. A. Crandall, an oil promoter, was awarded $40,000 by a jury in Superior Judge Hunt's court yesterday in a suit for $400,000 against Captain William Matson. The jury brought in the verdict, which was characterized as a "compromise" by both sides, after deliberating five hours. The case was on trial two weeks.

The suit was the outgrowth of transactions between the two principals in regard to oil lands in the Midway fields.

SEBASTIAN IS REHEARING IS ACCUSED OF SOUGHT BY TRICK CAMINETTI

LOS ANGELES, April 16.—With the disclosure today by District Attorney Woolwine of a letter written to him by Chief Sebastian introducing Guy Higgins, the mysterious missing witness, so-called "double-frame" came to the surface in the Sebastian case.

With a copy before him of the letter which purported to be a confession by Higgins, written during a flight to New Mexico in which it was said that he was to share in a large reward for discrediting Sebastian, Woolwine drew from his files another letter which he declared was sufficient grounds for his belief that Higgins was "put over" on him.

The letter displayed by Woolwine follows:

March 13, 1915.
Hon. Thomas Lee Woolwine,
District Attorney, L. A. Co.,
Hall of Records, City.

Dear Sir—This will serve to introduce Mr. Guy Higgins, who has a matter which he informs me he wishes to take up with you. Mr. Higgins has been connected with this department for some time, is well and favorably known to me and I am sure will not present anything to you that does not have merit.

Respectfully,
C. E. SEBASTIAN,
Chief of Police.

G. K. H. B.

After displaying this letter Woolwine said:

"This is my answer to the charges of the mysterious and elusive Mr. Higgins, who is now beyond the reach of a subpoena. This circumstance may serve to throw some light upon Mr. Higgins' sudden disappearance from the state and at whose instigation he wrote the alleged letter of confession, if he ever wrote it."

Woolwine would not make further statement. He admitted, however, that he does not know where Higgins is, but would like to know. He further admitted, upon being questioned, that he is looking for him, but has small hope that he will find him within the jurisdiction of the court.

Although the letter introducing Higgins bears the initials of Inspector George K. Home it is signed in ink by Sebastian and is not stamped with the rubber stamp commonly used by Sebastian's secretary.

In explanation of the presence of the letter in his files Woolwine said that it was brought to his office on or about the day it is dated. He was very busy at the time with other matters and did not believe he spoke to Higgins or talked to him.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—Application for re-hearing was made in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals today by Drew Caminetti, son of Commissioner General of Immigration Anthony Caminetti, and Master J. Evers of Berkeley, former state architect, convicted of violating the Mann white slave act. The circuit court recently denied the young men a new trial. Caminetti was given eighteen months and Digs two years in the penitentiary for transporting Lola Norris and Marsha Warrington from Sacramento to Reno.

The application is lengthy and is based chiefly upon the points made by Judge E. M. Ross of Los Angeles, who wrote a long opinion dissenting from the opinion of the court, denying the defendant a new trial.

The principal feature of Judge Ross' opinion was that the fact that Digs was silent on the witness stand regarding what happened on the trip to Reno could not be construed as any admission of guilt.

Digs was questioned by the defense regarding events leading up to his boarding the train at Sacramento with the two young women and Drew Caminetti. When the prosecution cross-examined him they attempted to go into what had transpired at Reno and in discussing the case Judge William B. Gilbert of Portland declared that when Digs took the witness stand he became the same as any other witness. He held that the fact that he did not testify regarding the Reno trip did not prevent the prosecution from examining him on all questions and should not interfere with the province of the jury in inferring from his silence that he knew more than he was telling or that he had something to conceal. It is on this difference of opinion between the jurists that Attorney Marshall Woodard and Robert Devlin, counsel for the defendants, are hoping to obtain a re-hearing in the appellate jurisdiction.

If it is denied an appeal to the United States Supreme Court at Washington will be taken.

The arrest of the two young men following the disappearance of Marsha Warrington and Lola Norris created a great commotion in Sacramento and opened up a nation-wide scandal. Both Digs and Caminetti were married men. The former's wife has since divorced him, but Caminetti is living happily on a ranch with his wife and child.

Baby's Happiness Depends On Health

Cross, fretful babies usually need a laxative to make them comfortable, and comfort begets happiness. Constipation is the cause of much discomfort. Mothers should watch closely the condition of their children's bowels and see that they are regular.

A mild, pleasant tasting laxative such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is ideal for children because of its natural composition and gentle action, and because it contains no opium, narcotic or other harmful habit-forming drug. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists everywhere. A teaspoonful at bedtime will bring easy, certain relief.

A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 452 Washington St., Monticello, Ills.

JUDGE IS GUEST.

MILITARY SYSTEM AT PRINCETON IS STARTED

By Associated Press.
PRINCETON, N. J., April 15.—The voluntary system of military training instituted at Princeton University, with the co-operation of the war department, opened last night with a lecture on the military history of the United States by Major General Leonard Wood. This was the first of a series of lectures by army officers on the theory of military instruction. Field work and drill will be included for those who desire to join the class. General Wood said this country possessed great military resources but that they were to a large extent undeveloped. "Underdeveloped military resources in a national crisis," he added, "are about as valuable as an undeveloped gold mine would be in a financial crisis in Wall street."

Chinese Society to Run Department Store

By Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, April 15.—The erection of a large department store to be run on the American plan in Hong Kong, and the purchase of a million dollars' worth of stock in the Canton bank were the principal projects decided upon at the Wednesday night meeting of the Chinese Merchants' Association. The organization is holding its annual convention in this city.

"SOMETHING FOR NOTHING"
PRICELESS NEMO HYGIENIC FEATURES FREE

DEAR MADAM:—Last week we asked you to decide this question for yourself: When you buy a Nemo that you know is a big value simply as a corset, and receive hygienic features worth at least as much more without a penny of added cost—are you not getting SOMETHING, of great value to you, for NOTHING?

We are sure your answer will be "yes," though probably the idea never occurred to you before. Now that we've mentioned it, don't you think that all "wise women" should seek a good store where Nemo Corsets are handled intelligently, and solve their corset-problems by the Nemo method?

The value of Nemo hygienic features cannot be expressed in dollars or in words; nor are they of equal value to all women. To some they only mean better style and increased comfort; to others they mean freedom from pain and illness—in some cases the preservation of life itself.

A Favorite for Over Ten Years
Nemo Self-Reducing Corset, No. 403, was introduced in 1904. Always a favorite, it sells faster to-day than ever. It suits a certain type of full figure better than any other corset. It has the Nemo "bridge" (diagram 2), and the Nemo Lasticure-Back (diagram 3), which No. 322, described last week; also the improved Nemo Relief Bands (diagram 2), which give excellent abdominal support and reduction with greatest comfort, being now composed largely of semi-elastic Lasticure Webbing. No. 403 is best adapted to a full figure with flesh evenly distributed. Medium bust, long skirt—the "Military Shape." Fine coutil or batiste, sizes 22 to 36—$4.00. (Also in extra sizes, up to 44, at $5.00.)

Don't Think of Nemos as "Just Corsets"
They are in a class alone, secure from competition. They do things for you that no other corsets can do. They combine splendid style and complete comfort with real economy. Next week we'll tell you more about this "SOMETHING FOR NOTHING."

A Simple Way to Remove Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then destroy it entirely. To do this just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger-tips.

By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluff, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.—Advertisement.

Glad to Recommend Fruitola and Traxo

Mrs. Norforth Says She Suffered
With Gall-stones for Several Years Without Relief.

In a letter to the Pinus laboratory, Mrs. Rosa Norforth, Monticello, Ill., says: "I cannot praise Fruitola and Traxo too highly as I consider it saved my life. I suffered with gall-stones for several years and could not get any relief until your preparation was recommended to me. It has been six months since I took the last bottle and feel that I am entirely well. Have anyone doubting the merit of your preparation write me as I will be only too glad to recommend Fruitola and Traxo to anyone suffering from gall-stones."

Fruitola and Traxo are the names used to identify two preparations that are taken in combination. Fruitola acts on the intestinal organs as a powerful lubricant, softening congested masses and disintegrating the hardened particles that cause so much suffering, and expelling the accumulation with almost instant relief. Traxo is a splendid tonic, acting on the liver and stomach with most beneficial results and is recommended in connection with Fruitola to build up and restore the system that has become run down and weakened through the suffering incident to the derangement of the digestive organs. In the files of the Pinus laboratory at Monticello, Ill., are many letters gratefully acknowledging the satisfactory results following the use of Fruitola and Traxo. Arrangements have been made for the distribution of these excellent remedies by leading drug stores everywhere. In Oakland, Fruitola and Traxo can be obtained at the stores of the Owl Drug Co.

FITCHBURG TO ORGANIZE VOLUNTEER FIRE SQUAD

FITCHBURG, April 15.—If they are provided with the necessary hose, residents of this district say they will form a volunteer fire squad to aid the regular fire department.

This scheme of affording better fire protection in Fitchburg, was proposed at a meeting of the East End Union Civic Center here this week. While there is a sufficient number of fire hydrants in this locality, it was pointed out many are at a considerable distance from the nearest fire houses in Melrose and Lynn, and that it is not safe to get a stronghold on buildings before the arrival of the engines. Certain of the residents may be appointed to act as firemen and take lessons in working the hose. A request for lengths of hose will be made to the city council.

Volunteer firemen within call of a blaze will be expected to turn out immediately in an endeavor to hold the fire in check until the fire engine comes on the scene, according to plan of action considered at the meeting.

Officers of the East Center were elected as follows: President, Mrs. A. C. Kelley; vice-president, Mrs. G. C. Sherry; secretary, Mrs. Harry Boyle; treasurer, Mrs. M. Newell. The center is located at the corner of the city hall and the city hall.

The care of the children of needy families in the district was considered by the center, members of which are at present looking after the welfare of several of these children. Although the recently organized East End Center has met only twice there are already over forty members.

SALVAGE MONARCH'S CARGO.
RICHMOND, April 15.—Captain Charles McNeill of this city, who was in command of the river steamer Monarch, which sank at the wharf at Selby after a desperate run up the bay with water pouring into her hold, is still at Selby making arrangements to raise the boat and to salvage the cargo. Lay, an oil trader at the Standard Oil Company, was performed yesterday at the home of the bride in this city by Rev. C. S. Linsley, pastor of the Trinity Mission Episcopal church.

MARINES GOOD BALL TOSSERS.
VALLEJO, April 15.—From now on it looks very much as though the Marines from Mary Island will make a strong bid for the championship honors of the Vallejo City Baseball League. The Marines defeated the leaders of the league last Sunday and the enlisted men appear to have a better mind than the other two teams that they are to meet this month.

VALLEJO, April 15.—A large number of the members of Vallejo Council No. 1, E. M. L. and Vallejo Institute, No. 13, E. M. L. will go to Antioch on Sunday, April 25, to attend the district meeting. An elaborate program is being arranged for the occasion.

WATER SUPPLY LARGELY.
VALLEJO, April 15.—Owing to the fact that water is still running into the two reservoirs at Wild Horse Valley, it will not be necessary for the City of Vallejo to pump any water from Green Valley creek this year to supply the city with needed water. This will mean quite a saving in money to the city.

"THE PEOPLE I SAW SHOPPING AT CHERRY'S TODAY"

"Using Their CREDIT"

"That's what I was doing, too, and you could better believe I was glad I COULD buy my things on WEEKLY PAYMENTS. Even if I hadn't wanted some new Spring Clothes before, I surely would have succumbed this afternoon, seeing the lovely and moderately priced clothes that other women were buying. I bought a suit myself—a short, straight-coated model, with one of those circular flaring skirts, in the smart short skirt style. It caught my eye right away. CHERRY'S have all the new colors, in the kind of suits that will be in style all summer. Coats, too—different checks and new covers. I didn't guess how bewitching hats can be made until I saw the enchanting styles at CHERRY'S. Former Candidate for Council
Declares Bore Damages Property.

RICHMOND, April 15.—The city of Richmond and Shattuck Eddinger Company will be made defendants in a damage suit to be filed in a few days by Attorney W. D. Grady, representing Gus Keller. According to Keller, the new municipal tunnel taken off 55 feet of a portion of his property on the waterfront side. "I was willing to let the tunnel be constructed," he said today, "but when they, apparently missed connections in their lay above entrance and took away 55 feet of my land I thought it was about time to protest. I intend erecting a large building on this lot, but under the circumstances this opening will hinder the work. I have retained Attorney Grady and he will file suit in a few days."

Keller had originally intended to run for city council and had the required number of signatures. However, owing to other business and the fact that he intended bringing suit against the city, he yesterday withdrew from the campaign.

RUINED BY WAR, HIS MIND FAILS

Former Capitalist and Consul
Found Wandering on City's Streets.

By Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, April 16.—Johann Wulfssohn, who said he was for twenty-six years German consul at Vancouver, B. C., was detained at the receiving hospital today, pending communication with friends or relatives. He had been wandering about the streets of the downtown section carrying a bouquet of roses in one hand and a new broom in the other. At the hospital Wulfssohn said that his property interests in British Columbia had been reduced to nothing by the outbreak of the European war and that he had failed to get a new start in Los Angeles. Wulfssohn also showed letters indicating that he formerly was the head of a banking firm doing business in Vancouver, and he said he had once been rated a millionaire, but sustained severe losses before the war. "When the war broke out," he explained, "it was a crime for a Briton to buy anything of a German and my property became valueless." He added that he had brought his wife and three children here, but they have not been found. Johann Wulfssohn is well known in Vancouver. He first came to this city more than twenty years ago. He was engaged first in the banking and real estate business as head of the firm of Bewick & Wulfssohn, and made some large investments here on behalf of German clients. Later he devoted his time exclusively to the work of the German consulate. He figured in several sensational episodes, notably on one occasion when he returned from a leave of absence and found that his deputy in the consulate had entertained lavishly on the occasion of the Emperor's birthday. Bills of many hundreds of dollars flowed in on Wulfssohn. One evening he invited his deputy out on the lawn in front of the Hotel Vancouver and there the two men fought and wrestled for a quarter of an hour. When last in Vancouver, a year ago, Wulfssohn appeared prosperous

LOIE FULLER TO CARRY OUT PACT

Star Will Meet Dancers for Big
"Ball of a Thousand Colors"
at 7 O'clock.

Tonight is the night. All the pretty girls and all the well-known women of Oakland will be at the northwest corner of the Hotel Oakland to meet Loie Fuller. Miss Fuller will carry out her pact with the dancers of the "Dance of a Thousand Colors" and tell them all about the great pageant of which she is the leader. She has brought about an organization that is winning in every direction for Oakland's greatest civic celebration. Miss Fuller will be at the Hotel Oakland at 7 o'clock. She will remain as long as it is necessary to thoroughly instruct her pupils. She is looking for Oakland's best dancers and the ladies whom she selects have a chance to be chosen for stage careers. Miss Fuller today received nearly one hundred personal calls at the hotel from women who are going to join in making Oakland's pageant a success; she had a basketful of letters, and to every one of these she will give careful consideration. "I cannot transport myself all over town," said Miss Fuller. "I am going to meet you by pre-arrangement and give you the very best of my ideas and experience." "Come and see me. You are all welcome. Remember that this is an Oakland event and that the city is not going to make you stand any expense for such advice and instructions as I hope to be able to give you." The official program of the "Dance of a Thousand Colors" will soon be issued by the committee. It was said today that nearly every one of the boxes would be reserved before the beginning of next week. Society people are taking the greatest interest in the dance and many of them think it will be a great lark to be on the floor with their fellow-women and men of Oakland and get closer in touch with them for the general interest of the city, and suit cultivated in his personal appearance a remarkable likeness to the Kaiser and particularly in his military mustache. Wulfssohn is about 67 years old. Six years ago he was married to Miss MacLure, daughter of J. C. MacLure, a capitalist of Victoria.

VENTURA DAY IS TODAY'S EVENT

Southern Counties Gather for Second Day of Big Week's Affair.

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama-Pacific Exposition, April 16.—Under the leadership of Ventura, the southern California counties gathered for their second annual day at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition today. The parade through the grounds, sun-drenched and frolicked and facetiously dedicated the Ventura county display. Like the Los Angeles county celebration yesterday, the Ventura day was a big success. At 10:30 o'clock this morning the latest addition to the Southern hosts arrived. This new company was made up of 100 Ventura people who came especially for the day. The formal dedication was presided over by F. A. Shuler, Ventura Commissioner and vice-president of the Associated Southern Commissioners. William Shields, Ventura county representative and Assistant District Attorney Robert M. Clark were the chief speakers of the day. Among the features of the dedication program was the singing of Mrs. M. N. Shuler-Helm. She is remembered here as Miss Bess Sackett. The reputation which she won in the bay cities as a solo singer, Mrs. Shuler-Helm enlarged since she moved to the Southern counties. Special music by a quartet added to the enjoyment of the occasion. Mrs. Walter D. Wagner acted as hostess at this pretty home. She was assisted in the reception of Mrs. Bella Stewart McKee of San Diego, Mrs. P. C. Martin of Riverside, Mrs. L. B. Hogue of Ventura, Mrs. Florence Porter of Los Angeles, Mrs. W. H. Wilson of Orange. San Bernardino county takes the lead at the seven days' celebration tomorrow.

SIDE ATTRACTIONS FOR POLO MEET PLANNED

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama-Pacific Exposition, April 16.—Big side attractions will be staged at the polo field and race track on tomorrow and Sunday along with the polo meet. These events have been arranged by D. O. Lively, chief of live stock department, and are sure to prove novel and unique. Tomorrow's track polo team is to play the First Cavalry four in the third round for the Pacific cups. Preliminary to the match a bending race, open to polo ponies, will be held. The polo field in the Universal tournament will be held. A Roman race that should prove novel, exciting and a treat to the sport-loving people will be held on Sunday as well as a half-mile race, open to enlisted men, which should attract some of the best horses and riders Uncle Sam has stationed in this section.

BIG CELEBRATION IS "RAISIN DAY" PLAN

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama-Pacific Exposition, April 16.—Raisins, raisins in bread, raisins in cake, raisins in clusters and raisins in recipes, will be distributed to visitors at the Exposition grounds on April 23. To celebrate this day will be "Raisin Day" at the Exposition; likewise needless to say this day is "Raisin Day" for Fresno and this plan will be the same thing. Arrangements already have been made for the distribution of 10,000 loaves of raisin bread. This bread will be baked in the grounds of the Exposition, the raisins will be given to the Exposition's guests.

S. P. C. A. TO DEDICATE BUILDING AT FAIR

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama-Pacific Exposition, April 16.—For the first time in its history which extends over sixty years, the San Francisco Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has been represented at any exposition by a building of its own and this building will be dedicated at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition tomorrow. Address will be made during the dedication by John Partridge, who will be the chairman of the day; James R. J. D. O. Tivale and John A. Parnell.

YEGGS WASTE EFFORT ON WOODEN DUMMY SAFE IN W. P. DEPOT

HAYWARD, April 16.—Safe-breakers broke into the Western Pacific depot here last night and started to smash open the door of a heavy safe only to find that it was a wooden dummy. A few wrenches and the makeshift door was unlocked to reveal an empty interior. Since the last safe robbery here, when the door of the safe was blown off and a considerable sum stolen, nothing of value has been kept in the safe over night and the iron door was replaced by one of wood. It looked realistic enough, however, to fool would-be crib crackers who entered the office at the depot by breaking a pane of glass and breaching the lock of the front door. The men left without disturbing the office, an inventory showing that nothing was missing.

SALVATION ARMY TO OPEN BOOTH AT FAIR

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama-Pacific Exposition, April 16.—An event of interest in philanthropic and religious circles will take place tomorrow at 3 o'clock in the Palace of Education at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition when the Salvation Army's booth will be officially dedicated. Mayor James R. J. D. O. Tivale, will preside at the ceremonies. The following constitutes the program of exercises: Opening song, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Prayer—Bridgman Merrivether. Solo—Y. P. Secretary Sarah Helm. Address—Alvin S. Pope, chief of Dept. of Education at the Exposition. Introduction of His Honor, the Mayor, by Lieutenant-Colonel H. C. Lee, Provincial Officer for California. Address—Mayor James R. J. D. O. Tivale. Band Selections—Oakland Corps Band. Duet—Agnes Pollard and Thomas Eschell of Chicago, Commander of Western Division. Dextology.

BIG PARADE PLAN.

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama-Pacific Exposition, April 16.—All parades that have been held in conjunction with the Panama-Pacific International Exposition will dwindle into insignificance when compared with the magnificent parade that will be the feature of the Fraternal day celebration, April 22. Thousands will march.

Man Found Dead in Washroom in Train

By Associated Press.
ST. PAUL, Minn., April 16.—When a Burlington passenger train from Chicago arrived here late last night a man believed by the coroner to be Rev. P. S. Slocum of Lyons, Ia., was found dead in one of the train's wash rooms. He had been shot in the head and a revolver found on the floor, the coroner said, indicated suicide. A letter in his pocket apparently from his wife was addressed to Rev. Slocum and postmarked Lyons, Ia.

GAG LAW IN ASSEMBLY.

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, April 16.—A resolution requiring members of the Assembly to debate on bills to 5 minutes and restricting members from speaking more than once on any bill, was introduced in the House today by Shartell of Alturas. The resolution will be acted on tomorrow and it was the general belief that such a rule would be added in order to expedite the business of the House, which has grown to large proportions. Nine Assembly bills were given approval during the morning session and a measure by Cary to regulate the issuance of charters to persons seeking to establish medical schools was defeated, 23 to 35.

Austrian Contingent to Attend Grand Ball

A large number of the Austrian contingent and its friends will be present at a Burlington passenger train from Chicago arrived here late last night given by the Austrian Benevolent Society. It will be held at the U. P. E. C. hall and a general invitation has been extended to those in sympathy to attend.

For extra good cooking always use Cottolene

For biscuits, pie-crust, cakes and doughnuts, and for frying, Cottolene is supreme, because it is the purest cooking fat and possesses important food values.

Cottolene

It is an exact combination of specially refined cottonseed oil, of a grade so high it is not listed on the market, with pure beef-tallow from selected leaf beef steers. It is this precise combination which gives Cottolene its unexcelled cooking qualities. There are imitations, but there is no substitute for Cottolene.

For economy, as well as for good cooking, use Cottolene. You will require a third less of it than of any other shortening or cooking fat. Any one who can cook or bake at all can cook and bake better with Cottolene. Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply. SEPPALA LEADS ALASKA DOG RACE

Team of Sixteen Siberian Wolf
Hounds Ahead of Allan-
Darling Pack.

By Associated Press.
NOME, Alaska, April 16.—Leonard Seppala's team of sixteen Siberian wolf dogs jumped into the lead in the All-Alaska sweepstakes dog race late yesterday and entered Gold Run, 152 miles from Nome, one hour and fourteen minutes ahead of the Allan-Darling team of Malamutes. Seppala's time was 28 hours and 41 minutes, five hours faster than any previous time to Gold Run. He stopped only seven minutes to change his leader and then started ahead through the snow for Candle, 24 miles away, the turning point in the 412-mile race. Allan rested his dogs twenty minutes and then started out to overtake Seppala, whom he hopes to catch before Candle was reached last night.

Eskimo John, driving the Council Kennel Club's team, dropped into fourth place between Haven and Gold Run. Paul Kjerstad's bird dogs beating the native driver into that station by twenty-two minutes. Kjerstad's time for the 152 miles was 30 hours and 21 minutes and the Eskimo's 30 hours and 21 minutes. Alex Holmstrom, driving Doctor Kittelsen's team of 18 Siberians, was only two minutes behind the Eskimo.

The dogs and drivers are all in excellent condition. The trail is improving and the dogs are making better time.

A Yosemite Valley Wonder Tribune to Give Fifty Trips

Yosemite Valley is situated about 4000 feet above sea level on the west coast of the Sierra Nevada range of mountains which divide California from the rest of the world.

Yosemite valley is a great gorge, about eight miles long by one-half to one mile wide, running almost due east and west. Scientists agree that in ages long past, the earth was riven asunder in some stupendous cataclysm; that it was then filled with slow-moving glaciers which gradually ground their way through, forming the Yosemite Valley and the Merced Canyon—great scars which Nature proceeded to beautify, until today we have the emerald-velvet valley which we call Yosemite, the Garden of the Sierras.

Yosemite Valley was first discovered by Major J. A. Savage, U. S. A., in March, 1851, and since then the number of visitors has been increasing every year, many coming again and again.

The wonderful South Dome, shown above, or Half Dome, as it is generally called, rises nearly 5000 feet above the surface of Mirror Lake, which lies at its foot. It is a mountain of granite, its north front, shorn straight and smooth as with an axe, forming a great wall. It has been calculated that there is enough granite in this massive pile to form a causeway forty feet wide from San Francisco to New York.

Whether viewed from the placid Merced river, rippling below the green floor of the valley, or 3000 feet above from the heights of Glacier Point, or from above Nevada Falls, where the rear of the great round Dome is best observed, this stupendous piece of nature's sculpture is awe-compelling in its majesty.

As you climb slowly up the winding paths, new vistas are constantly presented, preparing you in a measure, for the glorious panorama of mountain peak and crag, of pinnacle, turret and dome which opens to your gaze on entering the summit.

The Tribune will give away five trips to this beautiful valley through the travel contest which was inaugurated out a few days ago. Readers of The Tribune will be the recipients of these vacation tours to Yosemite, which will be awarded to the first fifty contestants who pass the 200,000 marks in the voting from the grand and district prizes. Contestants who take this trip to the world's mountain wonderland will still be able to count every point on the Hawaiian trip, the Panama-New York trip, the beautiful eight-cylinder Cadillac and the district grand prizes as well. Those who desire to share in the distribution of travel prizes should call up Lakeside 5000 at once or call at the Tribune office. Ask for Contest Editor. Special inducements to those who can interest ten friends before April 25th.

FIRE, CONCEALED BY BRITISH, WAS SERIOUS

By Associated Press.
LONDON, April 16.—There was a rumor in London the night of January 31 that a serious fire had broken out in the big government dockyard at Portsmouth, but the government smothered all inquiries with a prompt denial and the censor eliminated all mention of the matter from all press dispatches.

It now appears that the fire was of a very serious character and came near wiping out the docks and other valuable properties at Portsmouth. The real extent of the damage is still carefully concealed. It is the common belief in official circles that the fire was the work of incendiaries, probably German spies.

Today a carefully worded notice was issued by the dockyard authorities offering a reward of $500 "for the discovery of the incendiaries responsible for the fire at the building ship sheds the night of January 31."

ARREST MADE IN MURDER MYSTERY

Girl Victim Identified, Is Theory of Police; Prisoner
Defiant.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 16.—New York's latest murder mystery has assumed new angles after the police have established to their apparent satisfaction the identity of the victim as Miss Claudia Hansbury of Lansingburg, N. Y., arrested Raffaele Viullo, a well-to-do contractor, and charged him with homicide. The new element was the discovery, in Troy, N. Y., of Mrs. William H. Burk, who formerly was Miss Claudia Hansbury, and who erroneously had been reported missing.

The spot where the slain girl's body was found, in a vacant lot of the Astor estate in the Bronx, was her trying place, according to John F. McKenna, watchman on the estate. McKenna told detectives that he had seen a girl and a man near the spot on several occasions. The girl he identified as the one whose body lies in the morgue; the man as Viullo.

Viullo, whose fountain pen, the police assert, was found near the body, stoutly refused after many hours of cross-examination, the accusation that he had caused the girl's death. She looked like a girl he knew not long ago as "Claudia," he said, though he could not be sure it was she. He could not tell the last name of the woman he knew as Claudia, he said, and he had not seen her for five months.

Two sales girls, who sold the woman a coat which looked like the one found over her body, were taken to headquarters, but failed to identify Viullo as one of the two men who had been with her when she made the purchase.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION BILL PASSES ASSEMBLY

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, April 16.—The assembly today passed the compulsory education bill, which requires that children between the ages of 7 and 16 years be in school. The bill was one of the five laws urged by the Women's Legislative Council. The measure permits the instruction of children in their homes provided at least two hours a day are spent in the study of branches usually taught in the primary grammar grades. The instruction must be given by some person approved by the superintendent of schools.

Private schools are recognized in the bill as qualified institutions for instruction of children. Among other measures passed were amendments to irrigation laws, election laws and revision of the codes to simplify civil procedure.

DENY WOMEN MEMBERSHIP.

HOQUIAM, Wash., April 16.—The grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen in session here, yesterday morning voted down proposals to admit women to membership in the order and that a salary be paid the grand master.

DUTY BEFORE HAIR, IS MOTTO LIVED UP TO BY PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

"Dat man done promulgated mah feelin's somethin' harsh, Mizah Hennessey, and ef you all will see dat he gus a year in de calaboose Ah'll transcribe you some hair restorer dat'll grow floss on a ostrich egg," promised Maggie Smith, stout, chocolate and tearful, to Prosecuting Attorney Hennessey this morning in Judge Samuel's court.

"Dat man," was Levi Bradley. Judging from his first name Levi should have been a descendant of the ancient Hebrews, but judging from his complexion, his progenitors never saw Palestine. They came from Zululand—and not many years ago.

He was accused of beating up Maggie all because she went "sweethearding" with a Pullman car porter.

Maggie's oar attracted Hennessey. Of course, he is still youthful in years and appearance, but it must be confessed there are signs of sparseness manifesting itself on the top of his cranium. The temptation was great, but he nobly resisted it. When the case was called Hennessey, after hearing the testimony on both sides, made Maggie and Levi shake hands, in spite of the fact that Maggie vehemently declared she "hated Levi's liver." They departed together, Maggie bearing with her the priceless secret.

SOCIETY WOMAN DIVORCED.

FRESNO, April 16.—Upon the grounds of non-support Mrs. Claudie Mathews, a stock broker of that city, Mrs. Mathews, during her three months' residence in Fresno, has been residing with the L. A. Nares. The husband did not contest the case. The hearing was very short. Mrs. Mathews testified that her husband did not support her, and Mrs. Nares corroborated the testimony. No request was made for alimony.

OLD JUDGMENT REVIVED.

Frederick A. Hyde, who returned to his home last week after serving a term in the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., was yesterday summoned by Superior Judge Graham to appear in his court in San Francisco April 23, to show cause why he should not pay a judgment of $3540 secured by the Golconda Cattle Company, September 1912. The cattle corporation sued Hyde on a note.

TO END WAR BY GENERAL STRIKE

New York Unions Call a Mass
Meeting to Consider Peace Movement.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 16.—Resolutions calling upon organized labor throughout the United States to "seriously consider" at once the proposition of a general strike among these industries employed in the production of ammunition and food supplies for the use of warring European nations, were adopted last night at a mass meeting called by the Central Federated Union of Greater New York and vicinity to consider a peace movement.

Ways and means for enforcing immediate peace in Europe were demanded, the resolutions declared, by labor which "turns the fighting material and pays the expense and produces all materials for the conflict."

Speeches denouncing the war and demanding a cessation of work in industries which furnish war supplies to belligerents were delivered by Meyer L. L. L., Socialist representative in Congress, and others.

ELDERLY PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE VINOL

Aged Texas Woman Says:
"Old People Who Are Weak and Feeble Should Know the Merits of Vinol."

GRAND SALINE, Texas.—"I am an aged woman, and for a long time was weak and feeble, but I have found Vinol to be the best medicine to create strength for old people and for chronic colds I have ever taken. It has restored my health and strength so that I feel almost young again; in fact, I am now doing all my own housework."

"Old people who are weak and feeble should try Vinol and know its merits as I do. I have proved Vinol a good reliable medicine and much cheaper than paying doctor's bills, and you may publish what I say about Vinol for the benefit of others."

MRS. FANNIE E. RODGERS,
Grand Saline, Texas.

Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, sharpens the appetite, aids digestion, enriches the blood, building up natural strength and energy. We have seen such splendid results from its use that we return the money in every case where Vinol fails to build up and strengthen feeble old people, delicate children and the weak, nervous, run-down and debilitated, or stop chronic colds, coughs or bronchitis.
